COMMUNION TO LYNDOKCH: 2 July: Louise & Michael Taggart

Making Connections: Think of times when you may be tempted to deny Christ: by actions which do not reflect what you really believe; by silence when something really needs to be said; by failing to challenge an injustice. Try this week to publicly witness to your faith, even in simple ways like saying grace before meals.

Did you Know?: Points of interest and Catholic lore. * Members of the Church who have died rather than renounce their faith are called martyrs. The word 'martyr' literally means 'witness'. Throughout history many have given their lives for the faith and in our own time people are still martyrs because they will not swerve from their commitment to Christ.

* By the time Matthew wrote his Gospel the Church was already undergoing persecution in some areas and Christian faith was being sorely tested.

Marriage Tip: Every once in a while surprise your spouse with a gesture of kindness, such as a cup of coffee or help with the dishes.

Daily Prayer: Strengthened by your Spirit, may we never be ashamed of our faith, but confess your name before others so that your Son may acknowledge us before you on the day of his coming and welcome us to the kingdom where he lives and reigns with you.

A Vocation View: 2000 years ago Jesus summoned his disciples and sent them out—comforting them with the words "Have no fear." Today he is saying the same thing, "When you go out in my name—have no fear!"

Exploring the Word: * Jesus wants to form a community in which each individual is valued. In what ways do you experience God's individual care and concern?

* How does our parish reflect God's individual care and concern?

PARISH PRAYER: Loving God, Good Shepherd to us all, Gather us and form us into a welcoming parish family. Touch our hearts with your love so that we, in turn, may reach out to love one another, in a neighborly community. Our Lady Help of Christians, guide us as we seek to do Christ's will. Bless us in service, strengthen us in support of each other, and unite us as we grow in faith & love, to be a welcoming, caring Parish community. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Saints Carthage and Mary MacKillop, pray for our Parish family.

SHARING THE TRADITION

The Eucharist completes Christian initiation. Baptism confers the roles of priest, prophet and king on the faithful and we are drawn more deeply into these roles at Confirmation. In Eucharist, we participate with the whole community in the sacrifice of Christ.

This raises interesting issues. If Christ gave his body and blood to save the world and bring life to all, what does it mean when we say 'Amen' to receiving that body and blood? John makes it clear that by receiving this nourishment we become the body and blood of Christ in the world today, living with him and the Father. What are the implications of this? It means that we too must make an option for the poor of our world like Jesus did. How are we called to make small glimpses of 'salvation' to others? How are we called to bring healing and fullness of life to others and to the world?

The Eucharist has four central actions which echo the actions of Jesus at the Last Supper. There he 'took' the bread, 'blessed' it, 'broke' it and 'shared' it with his friends.

* The Second Vatican Council stated that the Eucharist is the 'source and summit' of the life of the church.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

Lord, in your great love, answer me.

It is for you that I suffer taunts, that shame covers my face, that I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my own mother's sons. I burn with zeal for your house and taunts against you fall on me. R. This is my prayer to you, my prayer for your favour. In your great love, answer me, O God, with your help that never fails: Lord, answer, for your love is kind; in your compassion, turn towards me. R. The poor when they see it will be glad and God-seeking hearts will revive; for the Lord listens to the needy and does not spurn his servants in their chains. Let the heavens and the earth give him praise, the sea and all its living creatures. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mystery Of Faith

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

'Commitment to mission is not something added on to the Christian life as a kind of decoration, but is instead as essential element of faith itself. A relationship with the Lord entails being sent out into the world as prophets of his word and witnesses of his love.' - Pope Francis, 2017, Message for World Day of Prayer for Vocations

"It is the same Spirit working in different ways in different people." Alleluia!

I would like to ask all to open themselves to the action of the Holy Spirit, who transforms our life, to be, we too, as small pieces in the mosaic of holiness that God continues to create in history, so that the face of Christ may shine out in the fullness of its splendor. Let us not be afraid to aim high, for God's heights; let us not be afraid that God will ask too much of us, but let ourselves be guided by his Word in every daily action, even when we feel poor, inadequate, sinners. It will be he who transforms us in accordance with his love.

Pope Benedict XVI, The holiness,

"Let us pray for those who are sick. We remember them in our Masses"

"Amid the dramatic events of our time, shine like beacons in the darkness of this world, shedding light along the way and opening ever new paths of confidence and hope."

Pope Francis, Communications Day 2017

The church is like a great ship being pounded by the waves of life's different stresses. Our duty is not to abandon ship, but to keep her on her course.
