Reflection by Greg Sunter

'Do not be afraid' is one of the most commonly repeated sentences in the Bible. In one form or another, the command to 'be not afraid' or 'fear not' appears several hundred times throughout the Old and New Testaments. Today's gospel passage is part of the sending out of the Twelve that occupies all of Chapter 10 in the gospel. It follows a little later in the chapter from last week's reading in which Jesus called the Twelve and sent them out as Apostles. The remainder of the chapter provides an extended teaching on what it means and what it costs to take the message of Jesus out into the world. Jesus teaches the Twelve that the message they bear will not always be well received and there will be those who will seek to silence the Apostles through violent means. But then the teaching comes to the section of today's passage and Jesus commands the Twelve, 'Do not be afraid'. The message to not be afraid is as much for the original intended audience of the gospel as it was for the apostles. The community for whom this gospel was written were on the verge of being 'squeezed out' and forced into secret. The passage reminds them to have courage and to have the courage of their convictions; to shout from the house-tops their message, not whisper it in darkness. It is a reminder of the abundant love of God who cares for them and sees all their efforts to continue to live out the message and ministry of Jesus. It is equally a message for us, today. We are called to continue the spread of the gospel message; continuing the work of those early Christian communities, the Twelve and Jesus himself.

Thankyou to all those parishioners who are involved with the Planned Giving Program here at St Augustine's Parish. As we begin a new financial year, it is a good time to look at our Program for 2018 and beyond.

New envelopes are available at the rear of the Church.

We are also currently updating our Direct Debit option for Planned Giving, thank you to those who have already taken this up.

The Direct debit will be run through the Catholic Development Fund (CDF), allowing givers to contribute regularly and without the worry of bringing an envelope each Sunday.

The account at the CDF will be able to process Debit/Credit cards, and would be transferred to our Bendigo Bank Account to assist in the day to day running of the Parish.
