COMMUNION TO LYNDROCH: 9 July: Jim & Elaine Hales

Making Connections: Repeat this often as a mantra this week: Lord, as you welcome me, may I be open to welcome others.

Did you Know?: Points of interest and Catholic lore. Even though family relationships are vitally important, 'the first vocation of a Christian is to follow Christ'.

Marriage Tip: Be intentional about giving your spouse your undivided attention when you see each other after your daily duties. Set aside time to sit together and talk about the highs and lows of your days.

Daily Prayer: Let no earthly affection dissuade us, no inner fear deter us from taking up the cross and following Jesus, that by losing ourselves in sacrifice and service, we may find life and the reward promised to the righteous.

A Vocation View: Jesus knew that when we are committed to whatever we are doing no obstacle can prevent us from reaching our goal. So Jesus could say: "If you will not take up your cross and come after me you are not worthy of me."

Sharing the Tradition: The first Sunday of July is named by the Australian Bishops as National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday. Reflect on the burdens and struggle which the Aboriginal people have undergone since settlement and seek ways to further the Reconciliation movement.

PARISH PRAYER: Loving God, Good Shepherd to us all, Gather us and form us into a welcoming parish family. Touch our hearts with your love so that we, in turn, may reach out to love one another, in a neighborly community. Our Lady Help of Christians, guide us as we seek to do Christ's will. Bless us in service, strengthen us in support of each other, and unite us as we grow in faith & love, to be a welcoming, caring Parish community. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. Saints Carthage and Mary MacKillop, pray for our Parish family.

Reflection: As if the Church were not satisfied with fifty days of paschal feasting, the festivals continue beyond the season. First the Holy Trinity is honoured and then the Body and Blood of Christ. The feast invites us to enter into the whole mystery of Jesus' self-gift to us in the Eucharistic meal. We are reminded that the Eucharist is first and foremost an action that engages us heart and soul. Our communion in the Body and Blood of Christ makes the Church the Body of Christ. Like Jesus we break the bread and pour out the wine of our lives for the sake of the world.

Pope's Prayer Intentions for July

Lapsed Christians.

That our brothers and sisters who have strayed from the faith, through our prayer and witness to the Gospel, may rediscover the merciful closeness of the Lord and the beauty of the Christian life.

"Go in peace glorifying the Lord by your life."

SHARING THE TRADITION

The Eucharist completes Christian initiation. Baptism confers the roles of priest, prophet and king on the faithful and we are drawn more deeply into these roles at Confirmation. In Eucharist, we participate with the whole community in the sacrifice of Christ.

This raises interesting issues. If Christ gave his body and blood to save the world and bring life to all, what does it mean when we say 'Amen' to receiving that body and blood? John makes it clear that by receiving this nourishment we become the body and blood of Christ in the world today, living with him and the Father. What are the implications of this? It means that we too must make an option for the poor of our world like Jesus did. How are we called to make small glimpses of 'salvation' to others? How are we called to bring healing and fullness of life to others and to the world?

The Eucharist has four central actions which echo the actions of Jesus at the Last Supper. There he 'took' the bread, 'blessed' it, 'broke' it and 'shared' it with his friends.

* The Second Vatican Council stated that the Eucharist is the 'source and summit' of the life of the church.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

I will sing forever of your love, O Lord; through all ages my mouth will proclaim your truth. Of this I am sure, that your love lasts forever, that your truth is firmly established as the heavens. R.

Happy the people who acclaim such a king, who walk, O Lord, in the light of your face, who find their joy every day in your name, who make your justice the source of their bliss. R.

For it is you, O Lord, who are the glory of their strength; it is by your favour that our might is exalted: for our ruler is in the keeping of the Lord; our king in the keeping of the Holy One of Israel. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia, praise the Word of Truth and Life.
To the humble and the lowly you reveal the kingdom's mystery.

HYMNS:

Entrance	16	Glory and Praise to our God
Gifts	110	Strong and Constant
Communion	185	Our Supper Invitation
	133	Only a Shadow
Recessional	40	Will you Love Me?

Mystery Of Faith
We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection, until you come again.

'Commitment to mission is not something added on to the Christian life as a kind of decoration, but is instead as essential element of faith itself. A relationship with the Lord entails being sent out into the world as prophets of his word and witnesses of his love.' - Pope Francis, 2017, Message for World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Both the first reading and the Gospel Today speak of hospitality and welcome. Our ministers of hospitality are a most visible example of using one's time and talents to welcome the people of God. But the Gospel assures us that all who give even just "a cup of cold water" to one of His lowliest ones will be rewarded.

Child Safety Standards Our Lady Help of Christians Parish has appointed Dion Bartlett as our Safeguarding Officer. We have a Child Safety Policy to ensure the safety and wellbeing of children in our care. A Child Safety Code of Conduct has been adopted for all who work with children in the Parish.

Introduction to the Bible every Friday in the Meeting Room at 10am.

Prayer of the Aboriginal People

Father of all, You gave us the Dreaming, You have spoken to us through our beliefs, You then made your love clear to us in the person of Jesus
We thank you for your care.
You own us, you are our hope.
Make us strong as we face the problems of change.
We ask you to help the people of Australia to listen to us and respect our culture.
Make the knowledge of you grow strong in all people,
So that you can be at home in us and we can make a home for everyone in our land.
Amen.

The Body of Christ is not simply something we receive; it is something we become. The bread and wine we share are truly the Body and Blood of Christ, and we who receive them become one body—incorporated into Christ and into each other.

Thank you Our planned giving last Sunday (Envelopes) was $3185.50 and Direct Debit for the last three months was $5,770. This gave the Parish approximately $106,840.50 for the Financial year. New Contributions for the New Financial year will be a great help with the running costs, mission, hospitality and maintenance of the Parish.
