Making Connections: Say this prayer each day: Lord, may the seed of your word fall into deep soil in me. May it not return to you without yielding its fruit in me.

Did you Know?: Points of interest and Catholic lore. Matthew's Gospel uses the term 'kingdom of heaven' rather than 'kingdom of God' because his audience is largely Jewish converts to Christianity and the Jewish people avoid using the holy name.

Marriage Tip: Have you developed any parting or reconnecting habits that confirm your love? A goodbye kiss or welcome home hug is a great start. Save the first five minutes of reconnecting to check in with your spouse.

Daily Prayer: God, Sower of the seed, we marvel at how your word accomplishes the purpose for which you sent it forth: how few of the seeds you sow take root, yet how spectacular their abundant yield. Make us good soil, ready to receive what you sow, that we may hear the word and understand it, bear fruit and yield a hundredfold.

A Vocation View: The seed of a vocation seeks fertile surroundings. Sometimes it gets stepped on, sometimes it gets choked, sometimes it lacks depth. But other times it is nourished by loving and caring friends.

"Winter is the time for comfort—it is the time for home."

(Edith Sitwell)

Reflection: Enter into the whole mystery of Jesus' self-gift to us in the Eucharistic meal. The Eucharist is first and foremost an action that engages us heart and soul. Our communion in the Body and Blood of Christ makes the Church the Body of Christ. Like Jesus we break the bread and pour out the wine of our lives for the sake of the world.

"We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him."
We rejoice in the greatest victory. When we unite ourselves to Christ Jesus, we unite ourselves to his resurrection from the dead.

A Prayer for Winter

Let us huddle together this morning, our community a place of warmth in our lives as we share the flame of hope and connection. Let us allow the frost of isolation and bitterness to melt away as we open ourselves to a sense of peace and spirit.

We extend our thoughts to all those who are cold this morning, lacking shelter or love to keep them warm. Let us wrap our prayers around them and each other like scarves, and wish each other safe journeys through the storm. May we be insulated from fear as the earth is insulated by the snow, and, like bulbs, may we continue to grow and open inside, despite the cold, ready for the spring, to stretch and grow towards justice.
Amen.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word but then the cares of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit." MATTHEW 13:22
Does the lure of riches and material goods choke God out of your life? Are you so caught up in worldly activities that you have no time for God? Stewardship is a lifestyle to be lived every day. It effects all the decisions we make. What we receive at Mass every Sunday should be shared with others all the other days of the week.

"If you can't feed a hundred, then feed just one."
(Saint Mother Teresa)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

THE SEED THAT FALL ON GOOD SOIL WILL YIELD A FRUITFUL HARVEST

You care for the earth, give it water, you fill it with riches. Your river in heaven brims over to provide its grain. R

And thus you provide for the earth; you drench its furrows, you level it, soften it with showers, you bless its growth. R

You crown the year with your goodness. Abundance flows in your steps, in the pastures of the wilderness it flows. R

The hills are girded with joy, the meadows covered with flocks, the valleys are decked with wheat. They shout for joy, yes, they sing. R

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia, praise the Word of Truth and Life.

To the humble and the lowly you reveal the kingdom's mystery.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

May our Stewardship of time, talent, and treasure show us to be among those who have heard the message of Christ and taken it in, yielding a hundred—or sixty—or thirty fold!

The Eucharist is a sign of unity. Joined to the body and blood of Christ, we are joined to each other. We are one body and that body is Christ. The Eucharist is truly a celebration of thanksgiving: thanksgiving for our transformation and thanksgiving for our unity.

- Sr. Dianne Bergant

"The Eucharist is the secret of my day. It gives strength and meaning to all my activities of service to the Church and to the World" - Pope Saint John Paul II

Prayer for Seafarers

O Mary, Star of the Sea, light of every ocean, Guide seafarers across all dark and stormy seas that they may reach the haven of peace and light prepared in Him who calmed the sea.

As we set forth upon the oceans of the world and cross the deserts of our time, show us, O Mary, the fruit of your womb, for without your Son we are lost.

Pray that we will never fail on life's journey, that in heart and mind, in word and deed, in days of turmoil and in days of calm, we will always look to Christ and say, "Who is this that even wind and sea obey him?"

Our Lady Star of the Sea, Pray for us. -Amen
