Making Connections: The image of treasure dominates this text. Jesus sees the search for God as part of the journey of people in all walks of life, because everyone is searching for 'treasure' in their lives. We need to have discerning hearts so that we can recognise what is real treasure and then give our whole lives to it.

Did you Know?: Points of interest and Catholic lore. The householder who brings out things both old and new may be a reference to people like Matthew himself, who, as well as receiving the teachings of Jesus and believing in him, also retain a profound respect for the Law and traditions of Judaism.

Marriage Tip: Doing things together is good, but depending on your personality some spouses can feel smothered. Do you have enough alone time or personal hobbies to refresh your spirit and bring a renewed you and new ideas to your marriage?

Daily Prayer: Many the paths by which you lead us, and wide the net that gathers us in. Teach us to refrain from judging others, that we may attend to our own commitment and be trained by your Son for the kingdom of heaven.

A Vocation View: Finding our vocation in life is like finding a buried treasure. We will do whatever we have to in order to be able to possess it. Finding the treasure is a gift, possessing it is our vocation.

The "home" represents the most precious human treasures, that of the encounter, that of relations among people, different in age, culture and history, but who live together and together help one another to grow. For this reason, the "home" is a crucial place in life, where life grows and can be fulfilled, because it is a place in which every person learns to receive love and to give love.
-Pope Francis

A Prayer for Winter

Let us huddle together this morning, our community a place of warmth in our lives as we share the flame of hope and connection. Let us allow the frost of isolation and bitterness to melt away as we open ourselves to a sense of peace and spirit.

We extend our thoughts to all those who are cold this morning, lacking shelter or love to keep them warm. Let us wrap our prayers around them and each other like scarves, and wish each other safe journeys through the storm.

May we be insulated from fear as the earth is insulated by the snow, and, like bulbs, may we continue to grow and open inside, despite the cold, ready for the spring, to stretch and grow towards justice. Amen.

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose." ROMANS 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you believe that all things work for good? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, means that God's plan for our lives may be different than our plan. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

but I can cast a stone across the waters to create many ripples."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

LORD, I LOVE YOUR COMMANDS.

My part, I have resolved, O Lord, is to obey your word. The law from your mouth means more to me than silver and gold. R.

Let your love be ready to console me by your promise to your servant. Let your love come to me and I shall live for your law is my delight. R.

That is why I love your commands more than finest gold. That is why I rule my life by your precepts: I hate false ways. R.

Your will is wonderful indeed; therefore I obey it. The unfolding of your word gives light and teaches the simple. R.

Pope—'You can't have a closed heart if you want to understand Jesus'.

In order to understand Jesus, we cannot have closed hearts, but rather need those that are courageous and forward-looking. Pope Francis stressed that 'no one can buy faith,' for it is 'a gift that changes our life.'

Must Open Our Hearts - In order to really understand Jesus, he underscored, we cannot have a "closed heart," and rather, need to follow the path of forgiveness and humiliation. To illustrate what it means to really have faith, the Pope turned to the people, who were ready to do anything to get closer to Jesus, taking whatever risks may have come their way. So confident they were in Him and His healing, they overcrowded and surrounded the home where the Lord would heal. He also reminded them that the roof had to be opened for the paralyzed man to be lowered into the home.

Need for Courageous, Forward-looking Hearts - "They had faith," the Pope exclaimed, "the same faith as that lady who, also in a crowd, arranged to touch the hem of Jesus' garment, Jesus' robe, when He was going to the house of Jairus, that she too might be healed." He observed this was the same faith of the centurion, who wished for his servant to be healed. "Strong faith, courageous, forward-looking," the Holy Father said, "hearts to faith."

Child Safety Standards Our Lady Help of Christians Parish has appointed Dion Bartlett as our Safeguarding Officer. We have a Child Safety Policy to ensure the safety and wellbeing of children in our care. A Child Safety Code of Conduct has been adopted for all who work with children in the Parish.

The app is freely available to download on Android and Apple devices at GooglePlay and the Apple App Store. Search for "Marist Daily Prayer"

LIGHTING A FIRE THAT BURNS OUR INDIFFERENCE

In the preaching of the Word of God, Jesus wishes that the divine flame would set the hearts of people on fire. The Word of God that Jesus preaches is like a sword that cuts, a fire that burns and purifies. It confronts people into taking decisions. Jesus breaks the false peace of indifference, superficiality, and compromise that would place God in the same level with idols, love in the same level with egoism. He wants people to choose the Gospel despite the cost. As Robert Kennedy once said, "Each time a man stands up for an ideal, or acts to improve the lot of others, or strikes out against injustice, he sends a tiny ripple of hope."

- Fr Gil Alinsangan SSP
