Two 90 Year Old men

When it's clear that Joe is dying, Mike visits him every day. One day Mike says, "Joe, we both loved football all our lives, and we played football on Saturdays together for so many years. Please do me one favour, when you get to Heaven, somehow you must let me know if there's football there."

Joe looks up at Mike from his death bed, "Mike, you've been my best friend for many years. If it's at all possible, I'll do this favour for you."

Shortly after that, Joe passes on.

At midnight a couple of nights later, Mike is awakened from a sound sleep by a blinding flash of white light and a voice calling out to him, "Mike--Mike." "Who is it?" asks Mike sitting up suddenly. "Who is it?"

"Mike--it's me, Joe."

"You're not Joe. Joe just died."

"I'm telling you, it's me, Joe," insists the voice.

"Joe! Where are you?"

"In heaven", replies Joe. "I have some really good news and a little bad news."

"Tell me the good news first," says Mike.

"The good news," Joe says, "is that there's football in heaven.

Better yet, all of our old friends who died before us are here, too.

Better than that, we're all young again. Better still, it's always spring time and it never rains or snows. And best of all, we can play football all we want, and we never get tired."

That's fantastic," says Mike. "It's beyond my wildest dreams! So what's the bad news?"

"You're on the team for this Saturday's match!"

We would like to heartily congratulate Norma and Terry Lannen because this week they celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. Over these sixty years they have demonstrated great love for, dedication to, and care of each other. All that, along with their steadfast and unshakeable faith have been an enduring inspiration to their six children. We salute them, we honour them and we thank them.

Embrace the Shepherds

In bible times the shepherds were considered outcasts, less worthy of a place in civil society. Here at St Mary's we're making a concerted effort to "embrace the shepherds." We welcome every person who is unwelcome.

Postal Survey

Attached to today's bulletin are three letters which may help parishioners in preparing to vote in the postal survey.

1. Bishop Paul Bird reflects on a number of writings from Pope Francis. The letter beautifully outlines the treasure that is traditional or sacramental marriage. It is well worth a read in affirming the "no" vote. Interestingly, neither Pope Francis nor Bishop Paul say very much about same sex attracted people who are the intended recipients of the proposed change.
2. Fr Andrew has his own take on the issues.
3. Bishop Vincent Long from Parramatta takes a more affirming approach to same sex attracted couples.

Hopefully these three very different articles will help parishioners with your postal votes.

Fr Brendan Davey Bequest

Fr Brendan has left a bequest to allow us to continue with the renovations of the presbytery. We will have more information when it is available, but for now we intend to put a bathroom in the storeroom area of the parish offices and to continue with the much needed painting on the outside of the presbytery. Some of the timber is now very bare. Thank you Fr Brendan.

St. Anne's Group

The next Grand Mother's Group meeting will be at 2pm on Wednesday September 20th (note date change) at Bernadette Harrington's house—4 Hewitt Street, Ararat. All welcome.

Summary: Social Justice Statement 2017–2018

Everybody's Business: Developing an inclusive and sustainable economy

Pope Francis has called for an economic system that places men and women at the very centre – one that meets the needs of all people and is just and sustainable. He denounces economic structures that take a purely utilitarian view of human beings, treating them as mere elements of production, to be thrown away if they are not seen as useful or productive. The Australian Catholic Bishops' Social Justice Statement for 2017–18 is titled 'Everyone's Business: Developing an inclusive and sustainable economy'. The Bishops call for an economy that is founded on justice and offers dignity and inclusion to every person. The Bishops' Statement is built around the Gospel for Social Justice Sunday, 24 September 2017. Jesus tells the parable of the workers in the vineyard, where all are active contributors and are recognised for their human dignity. Australia has experienced a quarter of a century of continuous economic growth, but the benefits of this good fortune have not been distributed equally. In our workplaces, conditions and security of employment have been eroded, while those who are unemployed subsist on incomes well below poverty levels. Australia is experiencing a housing crisis. And our Indigenous brothers and sisters struggle with economic and social burdens that most Australians cannot imagine. In the light of these challenges, the Statement calls us to build an economy founded on true solidarity with those who are most vulnerable. Such a society will reject an 'ideology of the market' that forgets the principles of justice and equity. Justice must be built into the very foundations of our community, and business can work for everybody's benefit, not just for shareholders. The excluded and vulnerable must have a voice in decision-making. God is calling us to use his bounty wisely, for the good of all and of our planet. For more information go to (www.socialjustice.catholic.org.au) or call (02) 8306 3499.

We have printed a Statement and put it on the foyer board for you to read.
