Coordinators Report

Thank you to everyone who was able to attend the Parish Assembly last week, and for sharing your thoughts and ideas towards reviewing our Parish Operating Plan. For those who were not able to attend, or who would like to contribute any comments or ideas, we would welcome your ideas on the questions discussed at the Assembly on the four themes identified in the original Operating Plan, of Spirituality, Engagement, Communication and Sustainability. There are forms at the back of each church with the questions posed at the Assembly, these can be completed and returned to the back of each church, emailed to the Parish or handed to a member of the Parish Pastoral Council or Coordinator team. The ideas raised from these conversations will be gathered together to form the basis of a new revised Operating Plan for the period 2017-2020.

Congratulations to our Parish Secretary Natasha Buttigieg and her husband Emanuel and family, on the arrival of their new baby daughter Mani Rose Buttigieg.

Appreciation

Many thanks to our Parish Coordinators for the preparation for and running of our Parish Assembly. Their dedication to their roles is outstanding and we are indeed fortunate to have their skilled and generous leadership in our parish. Thank you too to all who contributed to a wonderful coming together where shared values were discussed and good food was shared.

Australian Bishops' Social Justice Statement

Pope Francis has called for an economic system that places men and women at the very centre – one that meets the needs of all people and is just and sustainable. He denounces economic structures that take a purely utilitarian view of human beings, treating them as mere elements of production, to be thrown away if they are not seen as useful or productive.

The Australian Catholic Bishops' Social Justice Statement for 2017–18 is titled Everyone's Business: Developing an inclusive and sustainable economy. The Bishops call for an economy that is founded on justice and offers dignity and inclusion to every person.

The Bishops' Statement is built around today's Gospel: Jesus tells the parable of the workers in the vineyard, where all are active contributors and are recognised for their human dignity.

Australia has experienced a quarter of a century of continuous economic growth, but the benefits of this good fortune have not been distributed equally. In our workplaces, conditions and security of employment have been eroded, while those who are unemployed subsist on incomes well below poverty levels. Australia is experiencing a housing crisis. And our Indigenous brothers and sisters struggle with economic and social burdens that most Australians cannot imagine.

In the light of these challenges, the Statement calls us to build an economy founded on true solidarity with those who are most vulnerable. Such a society will reject an 'ideology of the market' that forgets the principles of justice and equity. Justice must be built into the very foundations of our community, and business can work for everybody's benefit, not just for shareholders. The excluded and vulnerable must have a voice in decision-making. God is calling us to use his bounty wisely, for the good of all and of our planet.

Promote Care, Oppose Euthanasia

The Victorian Government is seeking to introduce euthanasia and assisted suicide later this year. The proposed changes will impact everyone, not just those terminally ill. The Catholic Church believes that any proposal to introduce legislation enabling physician-assisted suicide and euthanasia is not in the best interests of the community and will have wide-reaching ramifications. For information about this important development, its impact on our society, and action you can take, visit www.cam.org.au/euthanasia ☎ 02 9560 5333. Info: www.palms.org.au/encounters/
