LOOKING FOR A LITTLE VOLUNTEER WORK?? Vinnies Welfare team need some help with administrative jobs- nothing too onerous! Vinnies Welfare team are also keen to increase their numbers. If you think you may be suited to working in either of these areas we would love to hear from you! Contact us at 03-54611074 or talk to our President, Colleen Pascoe

ST AUGUSTINE'S CHURCH HEATING: Work has commenced to install under-floor ducted gas heating in St Augustine's church to replace the current old and difficult to operate gas heaters on the pillars. Suggestions now invited for what part of the church to use and how to heat this for weekday Winter Masses rather than having to heat the whole building for these. Please put on your thinking caps and share your ideas with Parish Council members, Jill Morse or Fr John.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

5th November 2017

Priest: Brothers and sisters in Christ, with stilled hearts and quiet souls let us bring our needs before the God of all.

Reader: That Church and Civic leaders will exercise their authority with compassion and humility.

(pause) Lord, hear us: All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That nations will direct their resources to serve the poor and the hungry rather than for power or prestige.

(pause) Lord, hear us: All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That those who are slaves to fame and affectation will set their hearts on generosity and service.

(pause) Lord, hear us: All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: That, like a child in its mother's arms, the sick will rest in the peace of the Lord.

(pause) Lord, hear us: All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: For Carl Malone who died recently and all whose anniversaries are named on the Bulletin.

(pause) Lord, hear us: All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Priest: Seeking Mary's intercession, we pray: – "Hail Mary ...

Priest: God of everything good and loving, your Son Jesus teaches us the way of humility and service. May our greatness be found by practising deeds of love in Jesus' name. To you we pray through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.
