Making Connections: What are your talents and gifts? How do you use them? This week, use your talents explicitly for the good of others.

Did you Know?: Points of interest and Catholic lore. The 'talents' are not equally distributed. In God's plan all are endowed with different 'talents' so that we will recognise our need for each other and practice generosity, kindness and the sharing of the abilities we have.

Living the Word: Try to identify the particular gifts or talent which are needed in the various ministries of the parish community. Can the gifts and talents in the group be matched to these needs?

Sharing the Tradition: From the earliest times the Church has recognised the range of gifts in the community of believers and encouraged the use of a variety of gifts. For centuries, men and women have made their unique contributions to the life of the Church. Even the simplest person has a contribution to make—remember the apostles!

Marriage Tip: Do you know what romantic gestures your spouse loves the most? Is it candlelight, a shoulder rub, flowers, written notes, a favourite dessert or meal? Surprise him/her with a special gesture sometime this week.

Daily Prayer: Give us the will and wisdom to multiply the gifts your providence has bestowed, and make us industrious and vigilant as we await your Son's return, so that we may rejoice to hear him call us "good and faithful servants" and be blest to enter into the joy of your kingdom.

A Vocation View: Don't just bury your talents. Dream your best dream about your life and then live it to the full. God calls you to live in happiness.

Let us love, not with words but with deeds - -Pope Francis

What is the World Day of the Poor?

* In his apostolic letter to close the Year of Mercy, Pope Francis suggested the Catholic Church set aside one day each year when communities can "reflect on how poverty is at the very heart of the Gospel." He designated this as the "World Day of the Poor." It will be celebrated on the thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary time (two Sundays before the season of Advent each year). The inaugural World Day of the Poor is Sunday, 19 November 2017.

Quote from Pope Francis' message:

We know how hard it is for our contemporary world to see poverty clearly for what it is. Yet in myriad ways poverty challenges us daily, in faces marked by suffering, marginalization, oppression, violence, torture and imprisonment, war, deprivation of freedom and dignity, ignorance and illiteracy, medical emergencies and shortages of work, trafficking and slavery, exile, extreme poverty and forced migration. (Pope Francis, Message for World Day of the Poor, n.5)

Ways to observe the World Day of the Poor

Practice the Corporal Works of Mercy. The Corporal Works of Mercy are drawn from Jesus' life and teachings. They call us to: feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, visit the sick and imprisoned, bury the dead and give arms to the poor. Pope Francis added a new work of mercy: to care for God's creation. These offer a clear model and starting point for how to care for our neighbours in need.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

HAPPY ARE THOSE WHO FEAR THE LORD

O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways! By the labour of your hands you shall eat. You will be happy and prosper. R

Your wife like a fruitful vine in the heart of your house; your children like shoots of the olive, around your table. R

Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord. May the Lord bless you from Zion in a happy Jerusalem all the days of your life. R

OLHC 1975-2017, A Movement for a Better World Parish

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Good stewards are like the industrious and reliable servants in today's Gospel, prudently using and multiplying the gifts entrusted to them by God.

The "worthy wife" described in today's first reading is a perfect example of active stewardship, reaching out her hands to the poor and extending her arms to the needy.

The Bread you store up belongs to the hungry; the cloak that lies in your chest belongs to the naked; the gold you have hidden in the ground belongs to the poor
- St Basil the Great

Child Safety Standards Our Lady Help of Christians Parish has appointed Dion Bartlett as our Safeguarding Officer. We have a Child Safety Policy to ensure the safety and wellbeing of children in our care. A Child Safety Code of Conduct has been adopted for all who work with children in the Parish.

Introduction to the Bible every Friday in the Meeting Room at 10am.

Lost, All in Wonder

Jesus, whom I look at shrouded here below,
 I beseech thee send me what I thirst for so,
 Some day to gaze on thee face to face in light
 And be blest forever with thy glory's sight.
 - Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274)

Those from whom I receive the greatest consolations and encouragement are those whom I know to be dwelling in paradise
- St Teresa of Avila
