1st Sunday of Advent

Making Connections: Opportunities for group discussion and personal prayer. Waiting is the dominant symbolic activity for Advent. It is difficult for modern humans to spend time waiting. We are so used to technology making things happen almost instantly and tend to become frustrated at being made to wait. But the waiting of Advent is an active waiting, not a frittering away of time. It is a waiting spent in preparation and reflection. Maranatha! Come, Lord Jesus! This invocation of Christ is one of the most ancient prayers of the Church. It conveys the sense of urgency felt by the first believers and their hope for a swift union with Christ. It is a fine short prayer to use often during Advent.

Did you Know?: Points of interest and Catholic lore. Advent is a four-week season of preparation for Christmas. During this time we reflect on the coming of Christ into human history as a small baby, the coming of Christ at the end of time and the coming of Christ into our own lives each day. Thus Advent has a past, present and future dimension.

Marriage Tip: Can social media harm your marriage? Set clear boundaries when it comes to using technology in your home. Instead, make time for quality time with your spouse.

Daily Prayer: Keep us faithful to building your kingdom, alert to your presence in those around us, and blameless in our witness until the dawning of the day of our Lord Jesus Christ, who was, is and who is to come.

A Vocation View: It's Advent; almost Christmas! A Season of dreams come true. Be on guard. The Lord may call you to follow Him.

Sharing the Tradition: The celebration of a feast to honour the birth of Jesus did not emerge in the West until the fourth century. Scholars generally note that by 336 AD such a feast was in place and celebrated in Rome on 25 December. This comparatively late development of a feast to celebrate the birth of Christ may seem surprising to contemporary Christians for whom Christmas is so central. However, we must remember that the early Christians expected the glorious return of Christ in their own lifetimes. It was only with time and an obvious delay to the Second Coming that such a feast could emerge. Furthermore, time provided the opportunity for a greater and more mature theological reflection on the mysteries of the Incarnation and Second Coming.

Advent, as a period of preparation for the feast of Christmas, developed later still. There is no evidence of such a preparatory time in Rome until well into the sixth century. It was Pope Gregory the Great (590-604 AD) who established a four-week liturgical preparation for Christmas but eschatological (end times) themes of the Second Coming were not established until the Middle Ages.

Advent has a two-fold character—as a season of preparation for Christmas when Christ's coming in history is remembered; and as a season when that first coming directs the mind and heart to await Christ's second coming at the end of time.' (General Norms of the Liturgical Year).

Advent

Advent is such a busy time of year and we so easily forget that—at its heart—it is meant to be a time of preparation, waiting and hope for the coming of Jesus into our world and lives. I believe this understanding is more urgent than ever before.

Be still each day, listen to God and hear him declare to us, as he declared to his Son—you are my beloved; my favour rests on you (Mark 1:11)

May this Advent and Christmas season offer you a deeper appreciation of the meaning of Christ's birth in our lives and an opportunity to grow in discipleship.

First Sunday of Advent

We are the servants of G, each with his or her own task. We will be judged good stewards if, at His coming, He finds us ready and conscientiously pursuing the tasks to which we have been called.

Wrap-up Advent: 'living in the tension between the now and the not yet'

A theme that pervades the Advent season is the theme of 'living in the tension between the 'now' and the not yet'. This theme unites the Advent season and it's expressed in different ways across the liturgical readings and the prayers...the joyful, loving, hope-filled tension that we experience even in the way that we live and wait for the coming of Christmas with families and personally.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

LORD, MAKE US TURN TO YOU, LET US SEE YOUR FACE AND WE SHALL BE SAVED.

O shepherd of Israel, hear us, shine forth from your cherubim throne. O Lord, rouse up your might, O Lord, come to our help. R.

God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see. Visit this vine and protect it, the vine your right hand has planted. R.

May your hand be on the man you have chosen, the man you have given your strength. And we shall never forsake you again: give us life that we may call upon your name. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia, give thanks to the risen Lord, alleluia, alleluia, give praise to his name.
Jesus is Lord of all the earth, He is the king of creation.

Mystery Of Faith
Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

HYMNS:

Wreath *Be on your guard and stay awake, I will return, so stay awake
You know not when, so stay awake, until I come again.
Jesus, we stand awaiting you, Watching in prayer, proclaiming you
You are the light of all the world, We pray your kingdom come.*

Prayer for Young People

Lord Jesus, in journeying towards the Synod, your Church turns her attention to all young people of the world.
We pray that they might boldly take charge of their lives, aim for the most beautiful and profound things of life and always keep their hearts unencumbered. Accompanied by wise and generous guides, help them respond to the call you make to each of them, to realise a proper plan of life and achieve happiness. Keep their hearts open to dreaming great dreams and make them concerned for the good of others. Like the Beloved Disciple, may they stand at the foot of the Cross, to receive your Mother as a gift from you. May they be witnesses to your Resurrection and be aware that you are at their side as they joyously proclaim you as Lord.
Amen.
Pope Francis

International Day of People with a Disability: December

The International Day of People with a Disability is observed annually on 3 December. In Australia, over many years, the Church has sought to take this day as an opportunity to encourage a truly pastoral view that embraces our total community as the living Body of Christ. We especially pray that we, the Church, can strive to be a people of compassion and relationship, and a sacred place where our gifts are acknowledged, received and celebrated; for then we can truly proclaim that we are 'one Body in Christ'.

This Christmas, your donation Can make wishes come true.

For most, Christmas is a time for giving and celebrating with loved ones. But for around 105,000 Australians, including families and 17,000 children under 12, it's a time when fulfilling even the simplest of wishes, like having food on the table or a place to call home, will be a struggle. Take Ollie and his mum, Sharon. All he wants for Christmas is to stop moving all the time and for his mum to finally be happy. When you donate to Vinnies, you're making simple Christmas wishes like Ollie's come true.
