Making Connections: This week's Psalm response offers great wisdom: Lord, you have the words of everlasting life. Use it often this week.

Did you Know?: Points of interest and Catholic lore. The only coins acceptable in the Temple were half shekels. Roman coins were not acceptable because they were imprinted with the image of the Emperor and the Commandments clearly state that there should be no graven images used by Jews. The money-changers were actually performing a necessary task for the proper functioning of the religious life of Israel. What may Jesus really have been angry about?

The trade in animals was necessary for sacrifice at the Temple. Ordinary people needed to sacrifice for a number of religious reasons; for example, to become ritually clean again after childbirth (See Lk 2:22-25). But this trade was under a monopoly of the wealthy and elite Sadducees who controlled the Temple cult. What may Jesus really have been angry about?

Sharing the Tradition: The gospel readings for the next three weeks are taken from the Gospel of John. John's Gospel was the last one written down, probably close to the end of the first century. The followers of Jesus had had seventy years to contemplate who Jesus was and the meaning of his ministry. Thus we find a very different tone in John from the other three gospels, known as the Synoptics. Each of the gospels for these three weeks reflects in some way on the paschal mystery; that is, the life, death and resurrection of Jesus in his own time but also as it continues to be made present and powerful in the faith of the Church in all ages.

Living the Word: For the Jewish people, the Temple was the centre of worship of God. God's dwelling place on Earth was the Holy of Holies. But now Jesus declares himself the new temple. True worship of God is now centred in Jesus himself, the embodiment of God. Members of the Church, the continuing presence of Christ in the world, are sometimes referred to as 'temples' of the Holy Spirit.

Marriage Tip: If one must choose the hardest stage of parenthood, it might be the teen years. They're too big to carry to their room but too young to always make good decisions. Assure your teen that you will always love them – no matter what.

Daily Prayer: Holy is your name, O Lord our God. Incline our hearts to keep your commandments, and school us in the sublime wisdom of the cross, so that, free from sin, which imprisons us in our own self-centredness, we may open ourselves to the gift of your Spirit and become living temples of your love.

A Vocation View: Jesus cleaned out the temple of money changers. He was angry; He was zealous; He was authoritative. He was doing what He had to do, even though it involved risk, danger, insult and wonder. Such is a vocation.

For our Children Becoming Catholic

Because we are human and created in God's image and likeness, we belong to the community of God—God's family. When we are born we are born into a family with the possibility of developing a network of relationships. God created us to live in peace and harmony, to enjoy the wonders of creation, to relate personally to a loving God who comes close to us and wishes us to be free, to be happy and fulfilled, and to build up the community. The book of Genesis speaks of God delighting in all of creation and wanting to be in relationship with humankind.

Prayer of Intercession

For refugees and asylum seekers who inspire us by their journey of hope; may the Catholic community stand up to injustice and be the welcoming face of our God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

LORD, YOU HAVE THE WORDS OF EVERLASTING LIFE

The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul. The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple. R.

The precepts of the Lord are right, they gladden the heart. The command of the Lord is clear, it gives light to the eyes. R.

The fear of the Lord is holy, abiding for ever. The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just. R.

They are more to be desired than gold, than the purest of gold and sweeter are they than honey, than honey from the comb. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory. No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that proceeds from the mouth of God; glory to our God.

From Our Parish Archives: Our School

In the mid-1960's the land on which our church, school and presbytery now stand was purchased by Monsignor O'Connell.

Under the leadership of Monsignor Fiscalini, the first section of Our Lady Help of Christians School was commenced in October 1970. This consisted of four classrooms, administration section, canteen and connecting verandah to the toilet block. It was completed during February, 1970. The contract was carried out by Fotheringhams' Constructions. The school opened on March 3, 1971, with Sister Sheila Gleeson (Mary Bertrand) as Principal, with Mrs. Margaret Thompson and Miss Sheila Kealy as the other teachers. At this time the school had an enrolment of 107 in classes from Preparatory to Grade 2. Pupils began their academic career in this new situation, where modern furniture and equipment allowed staff to implement ideas until then quite unknown in this district. In a very short time it was evident that our Catholic Education System had been established on a really worthwhile basis in Warrnambool East. Sound basic attitudes so permeated the system that very quickly all connected with the school became aware of the motives and purpose for its existence and did everything possible to promote these ideals.

The school was blessed and officially opened by His Lordship, Bishop J.D. O'Collins, on Sunday, April 18, 1971. Extensions to the school were commenced in September, 1972, by builder Ron Mitchell, and completed prior to the commencement of the 1973 school year. This extension provided the school with three additional classrooms and a library. The development of our Parish School was due to the astute planning of Monsignor Fiscalini, for which the parishioners of our parish are most grateful. Since the establishment of the school, classes have progressed yearly and children have been provided with many activities inside and outside the school in order to broaden their education. At the end of the current year the first group of students will graduate into junior secondary schools, and this will mark a new era in the life of our parish. Links will soon have to be established between the parish and the schools to which graduates will go to further their education.

The school has been the "Life Blood" of the parish, it has been the place not only for the education of our children, but also for the celebration of the Eucharist, meetings and social occasions. To this point of time Our Lady Help of Christians School has been the very center of our parish life. We are confident that it will be a vital, dynamic cell in the Church of Warrnambool East.
