Making Connections: What moments of utter abandonment have you experienced? Have you ever been jeered at by others? Share stories of occasions of desolation in your life. Share reflections on how you respond to the abandonment which Jesus experienced. Can you make connections? Share time reflecting on the events of the Passion of Jesus. What does it mean for you that Jesus died for all humanity? Make this prayer often this week. Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your cross and resurrection you have set us free.

Did you Know?: Points of interest and Catholic lore. Golgotha is a Semitic word which means 'skull'. The name Calvary comes from the Latin translation of 'skull'. It is likely that the name comes from the habitual use of the site for executions. Passion or Palm Sunday is the beginning of what is known as Holy Week, a period of intense preparation for the ceremonies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil. The Passion of Christ refers to his arrest, trial and death. Jesus is in Jerusalem at this time to celebrate the Festival of Passover.

Exploring the Word: If, as scholars suggest, Mark is writing for a community of believers in Rome who are undergoing persecution and even death, how may this image of Jesus' suffering resonate with them? What comfort may they take from this image of Christ?

Living the Word: The palms used today symbolise Christ's triumph while the cross is the symbol of the death through which his triumph is achieved. Traditionally, Catholics take the palms and place them in a position of prominence in their homes as a reminder of the passion Christ endured for us. The palm is often attached to a cross uniting these two symbols. Do you have a cross or crucifix in your home? Use a cross and some palms for a focus for prayer. Allow some quiet time for meditation on the events of the Passion. 'Jesus remember me.' Pray for those who are approaching baptism.

Marriage Tip: Typically couples divide up work around the house according to time, skill, and interest. For a change of pace, try switching up jobs for a day. The work might not get done as efficiently, but you'll learn a lot.

Daily Prayer: As we enter this Holy Week, let the same mind be in us that was in Christ Jesus. Empty us of ourselves, and draw us close to the cross of Christ, that, looking on One forsaken, we may acknowledge this man to be truly the Son of God and confess him as Christ the Lord.

A Vocation View: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Mass of the Oils will be celebrated in St Patrick's Cathedral, Ballarat at 6.30pm on Monday, March 26. This Mass is a celebration of the whole Church on the Diocese of Ballarat. We celebrate the unity and ministry of the ordained priests in the midst of the entire priestly people of God of the Diocese. This Mass also has a special significance for those who will use the blessed oils in 2018, the ordained, the sick, those to be baptised and confirmed. All members of the Diocese are invited to this celebration, which truly expresses the unity of the Diocesan Church.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

MY GOD, MY GOD, WHY HAVE YOU ABANDONED ME?

All who see me deride me. They curl their lips, they toss their heads. 'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him; let him release him if this is his friend.' R.

Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of wicked beset me. They tear holes in my hands and my feet. I can count every one of my bones. R.

They divide my clothing among them. They cast lots for my robe. O Lord, do not leave me alone, my strength, make haste to help me! R.

I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled. 'You who fear the Lord give him praise; all sons of Jacob give him glory. Revere him, Israel's sons.' R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory.

No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that proceeds from the mouth of God; glory to our God.

- Entrance GA 312 Hosanna to the Son of David
- Gifts 104 Blessings of the King

Easter Message

I've been thinking what life would be like without Easter. You might say it would mean one less holiday and not much more. In fact, despite the odd escapist pleasure, life would be one long and dark Calvary. That's the kind of living death many people know, a life without Easter. In the end, that's the definition of paganism—keeping in mind that pagans aren't bad people, just people who find real hope and hence real life difficult or impossible. As St Paul says of us Christians, we are the most pathetic people of all if Jesus isn't risen from the dead. But once he does rise and once we believe he rises, then everything changes—not suddenly or magically but slowly and deep down where the victory of Easter is unstoppable. We have the peace of those who know how the story ends. On the way to that ending, there are and will be agonies of every kind, as we see daily around the world, and less frequently perhaps in our own life. But the agony of Calvary will give way to the joy of Easter. All the blood and tears of the world, gathered up in the Cross, will give birth to the songs of joy which are unique to Easter, music that reaches beyond all our disappointment, disillusionment and depression. The world without Easter would be a tomb. The world with Easter is a womb teeming with a life bigger than death. Happy Easter. - Archbishop Mark Coleridge

Project Compassion

When Psyche Mae featured in Project Compassion 2008, she was living in a squatter settlement, near a rubbish dump in the Philippines. She is now a social worker, with plans to study a Master's degree, whilst helping others emerge from poverty, thanks to the support of individuals and Caritas Australia. Please donate to Project Compassion 2018 and help improve the health and wellbeing of communities in the Philippines so they can work towards eradicating poverty, providing a just future for all.
