'Risen', the story of the Resurrection

On Tuesday April 17th the Legion of Mary will screen the DVD 'Risen', the story of the Resurrection told through the eyes of a non-believer, a Roman Tribune. A light lunch will be provided after 12.05pm Mass followed by the movie at 1.30 pm in the MacKillop/Glowrey rooms. All welcome

Pope Francis' new apostolic exhortation, "Gaudete et Exsultate"

("Rejoice and Be Glad") offers Christians a rich reflection on the "Call to Holiness in Today's World." It is both steeped in the church's spiritual tradition and at the same time is a passionately personal document. This is the third of the pope's apostolic exhortations.

YESS (Youth Every Second Sunday)

The next gathering will take place on Sunday April 22nd following the 5.00pm Mass. All of the YESS gatherings will take place in the MacKillop/Glowrey rooms (smaller hall) at the Cathedral.

Plenary Council 2020

Everyone is invited to reflect on the question: "What do you think God is asking of us in Australia?" www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au

To begin our preparation for this time of dialogue and discernment amongst all members of the Church in Australia, the Diocese of Ballarat will commence by Praying Towards 2020 (April 21st – May 6th). In the Cathedral Parish there will be events every day in the week of April 29th – May 5th to which all parishioners will be invited.

Collections Envelopes $1,667.00 Parish Loose $297.45 Presbytery $1,909.90

Good Friday Holy Land Collection $1,860.50

Counters April 15th Team 4 Next week team 5.

Alpha – Adult Faith formation opportunity

Commencing in May - Parishioners and friends are invite to register with the Office.

Gospel Reflection:

Sr Veronica Lawson rsm

Extraordinary things can happen if we open ourselves to the presence of a stranger on the road of life. That is one of the elements in today's gospel that forms the conclusion to the Emmaus story. When I was a student at Trinity College in Dublin researching Luke's depiction of women in the Acts of the Apostles, I would often take a detour on my way home to visit the National Gallery of Ireland. Velázquez' remarkable oil painting, Kitchen Maid with the Supper at Emmaus captured and held my attention. We have here a painting within a painting. The kitchen maid pauses from her tasks to listen, through the window between kitchen and dining area, to the conversation between Jesus and his table companions. His hosts have not yet recognised the companion they had encountered on the road from Jerusalem. Velázquez seems to be suggesting that the young servant woman in the foreground, a woman from another place and another time, has sensed what they have still to discover.

Imagine two dejected disciples (Cleopas and possibly his wife) on the road from Jerusalem to their home in Emmaus. On their journey, they encounter Jesus who has been raised. At first, they fail to recognise him. Their sadness at his death has blinded them to what is happening before their very eyes. He engages them in conversation and holds up a metaphorical mirror to their experience of loss and grief. Their hearts "burn" within them as he opens to them the meaning of their sacred scriptures. They invite him to share a meal with them and their eyes are opened: they recognise him in the breaking of the bread. Jesus then disappears from their midst. They cannot contain the joy they have experienced in realising that he is alive.

Cleopas and partner go straight back to Jerusalem to share the good news with the other disciples. Now all the assembled disciples experience powerfully the presence of Jesus in their midst. They share a meal with him. He opens their minds to understand the scriptures. Everything falls into place. They not only understand Jesus' death and resurrection in the light of the scriptures. They now know that they will be "clothed with power from on high" to exercise their role as witnesses to this great mystery, and to preach forgiveness to all peoples "beginning from Jerusalem".
