Making Connections: Who are the people who rely on your care? Extend that care in special ways this week

Did you Know?: Points of interest and Catholic lore. The Latin word for shepherd is the root of the word pastor which is often used to describe the priest who leads the community. From this Latin root we also derive other terms such as pastoral associate, pastoral council and pastoral care, all of which imply a duty of love and care towards others.

Exploring the Word: Jesus' life is freely given for his flock. It is sometimes thought that Jesus died to satisfy the will of the Father imposed on the Son. This is not so. Jesus' gift was a free gift because he responded at all times to that which was most profound in him: the Father's love which he wished to make known to the world. It is a generous, self-giving love for others. In what ways are Christians called to offer the same self-giving love for others?

Sharing the Tradition: The Liturgy of the Eucharist. The Eucharistic Prayer, the heart of the Eucharist, is a great prayer of praise and thanks addressed to God. It recalls Jesus' Passover from death to life and, in remembering, unleashes the power of that event in our present lives. The Spirit is invoked to transform the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of the Lord. It is a Trinitarian prayer.

Living the Word: In Australia, we have visions of vast sheep farms where the flock is contained by fences but this is not the way shepherds worked in Jesus' time. Then, shepherds wandered the countryside with their sheep in search of pasture and guided them away from dangers like steep ravines or bramble thickets. A shepherd who owns the sheep looks after them well because they are his livelihood. In what ways does our community become the body of Christ present in the world?

Marriage Tip: Remember your first date? Can you recreate it in some way this week – go to the same place? Watch the same movie? At the least, reminisce together.

Daily Prayer: What love you have bestowed on us, O God, that we should be called your children, born again in Christ by water and the Spirit. What love you have lavished that we should be gathered into the fold of a Shepherd whose life is given freely for us. Keep us safe, make us one, and gather all your scattered children into the one fold of this one Shepherd.

A Vocation View: This is World Day of Prayer for Vocations. The world needs worthy leaders, Good Shepherds of the 21st Century, caring unselfishly for the needs of God's people. Please, pray for Vocations.

Plenary Council

The Catholic Church in Australia has commenced preparations for a plenary council to be held in two sessions, the first in October 2020 and the second in May 2021. The council will involve representatives of Church communities from all around the nation, including bishops, priests, religious and laity. The role of the plenary council is to provide for the pastoral needs of the people of God in the particular country. So this council will be considering the needs of Australia and how we might fulfil our mission of sharing the good news of Christ with people today. In the diocese of Ballarat, we will have opportunities to gather in our local communities for prayer and dialogue, so that we might make our contribution to the plenary council. I invite you to take part in these gatherings, joining together in prayer and learning from the wisdom that the Spirit gives to each one. I invite you to pray the pray for God's blessing on us all. -Paul Bird CSSR, Bishop of Ballarat

A Prayer for the Plenary Council

Blessed are you, God of all creation. You have given us life and light and all the wonders of the world. You have sent your Son Jesus to be our Saviour and your Holy Spirit to be our guide. As we prepare for the plenary council, we ask you to come into our hearts with your Son and Holy Spirit. Come to us and make your home in us. We pray for our local community, for the people of our diocese and for the Church throughout Australia. May your wisdom show us the way, for your word is a lamp for our feet and a light for our path. Come and fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the fire of your love, that we may live by your gospel and share your good news with all we meet. Holy Mary, Mother of our Saviour, pray for us. St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.
