Making Connections: Find ways to pour yourself out for others this week. Jesus' own prayer life was nourished by the Psalms. Pray today's Responsorial Psalm often this week:

How can I repay the Lord for his goodness to me? The cup of salvation I will raise; I will call on the Lord's name.

Did you Know?: Points of interest and Catholic lore. The Passover is an important Jewish feast which commemorates the deliverance of the people of Israel from slavery in Egypt (see Exodus 12:1-13:16). The blood of a sacrificed lamb was daubed on the doorposts of the homes of the Jews so the angel of death would 'pass over' their dwellings and kill only the first born of the Egyptians. The Passover Festival included a ritual meal with the eating of unleavened bread, cooked lamb and the drinking of a ritual cup of wine. Jewish families still practice this ancient ritual today. The Passover is more than a remembrance of a past event; it makes present again the reality of God's saving action. After Israel had been liberated from slavery in Egypt, God entered into covenant with them at Mt. Sinai. This is a special relationship. 'I will take you as my people and I will be your God.' (Ex 6:7). This meant that Israel had to live in a certain way. They had particular obligations to follow in keeping their side of the agreement.

Exploring the Word: The ritual of the Passover is always shared by families and Jesus and his disciples have formed a family so it is natural that they will celebrate this great Jewish feast together. The traditional Passover celebration looked back to the experience of Exodus but it was always understood, not only as a commemoration, but as a making present again of that experience of liberation through the saving action of God. The unleavened bread recalls the manna given in the desert and the wine recalls the crossing of the Red Sea. At Jesus' meal he changes the point of reference. He no longer looks back to the Exodus experience but looks forward to the cross. The bread is no longer the manna of the dessert but his own body which will be broken. The wine no longer symbolises the crossing of the Red Sea but his own blood which will be spilled for many. The blood of the lamb sacrificed on the cross will be the symbol of a new covenant between God and people— no longer the covenant of Moses, but the covenant of love which Christ inaugurates through his death and resurrection; the gift of himself to the world.

Sharing the Tradition: Just as the Jewish Passover not only recalled the Exodus experience but made it present again, so too does the Eucharistic celebration of Christians. The Eucharist celebrates and makes present the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus and calls us to live this sacrifice in our own lives each day. Saying 'amen' to the body of Christ means we become what we eat! There are huge implications to this.

- In what ways can you give your life for others?
- In what ways does the Church give life for others?

Living the Word: How does our community give its life for others? What community ministries are available for us to become involved in?

"Go in peace glorifying the Lord by your life."

The Holy Spirit calls us to community. The Church is the Body of Christ, called to unity in one faith, one baptism, one God. It is within the context of a community centred on Christ, that faith truly comes to life.

The Holy Spirit calls us to holiness. We are called to live our lives inspired by a love worthy of the Body of Christ. This means constantly striving to refine our faith, deepening in our relationship with Jesus, and seek charity, selflessness, gentleness, and patience.

The Holy Spirit calls us to mission. Faith demands a response. The moment we encounter Jesus, we are to go out to all, proclaiming the Good News to all creation. As you fulfil this mission, as it becomes your deepest identity, know that the Holy Spirit will be with you, working through you in incredible ways. Today, open your heart and mind. Today, let go and let God fill you with the overflowing love. Amen.

Pope's Prayer Intentions for June

Social Networks: That social networks may work towards that inclusiveness which respects others for their differences.

Marriage Tip: You think you're right. Your spouse thinks the opposite. Neither of you wins by making the other wrong. Try giving the benefit of the doubt to your beloved. Try it their way – at least once.

Daily Prayer: Faithful God, whose everlasting covenant with us is sealed in the blood of Christ, be present in our midst, in the assembly of your people: For all that you command us we will do. In the book of the covenant, speak to our hearts. By the blood of the covenant, purify our consciences. As we give thanks with bread and cup for the mercy that has found us, gather all your children in forgiveness.

A Vocation View: Through the ministry of our ordained priests, we receive Holy Communion. Through the Body and Blood of Christ, we are made one body: to become Christ-like ... purified ... ready to serve. Pray for Vocations.
