Responsorial Psalm (R.) With the Lord there is mercy
and fullness of redemption.

1. Out of the depths I cry to you,
O Lord,
Lord, hear my voice!
O let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleading. (R.)

2. If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt,
Lord, who would survive?
But with you is found forgiveness:
for this we revere you. (R.)

3. My soul is waiting for the Lord,
I count on his word.
My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak. (R.)

4. Because with the Lord there is
mercy,
and fullness of redemption, Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity. (R.)

Enlarge Your Family

In today's Gospel Jesus' relatives come to pull him away from the crowd. But Jesus won't leave. Instead he uses the moment to teach. He tells the crowd that his family is larger than his blood relatives, or even his ethnic group or nation. Jesus' family – and your family, if you follow him – includes all people who do God's will. Notice that he includes all people who do God's will, not just his disciples. That means our family includes non-Christians as well.

That was a radical statement to make in Jesus' time, when family and tribal connections were so important. And it's still pretty radical during our time, when many people find it hard to care about people who are different or who live in faraway countries.

So ... immigrants working here illegally to help their families back home? Our family. Muslims in Iraq? Our family. Jews in Israel? Our family. Homeless folks who walk our streets? Our family. The lonely kid who seems to have no friends at school? Our family.

This could change things – couldn't it?

Think of the people in our world, community, or school whom you see as most different from you. If you saw them as family, how would it change your ideas or treatment of them?

REFLECTION

by Fr Michael Tate

The first way to reject the real Jesus is to domesticate him, and that is what members of his blood family were trying to do. They thought he was 'out of his mind', madly putting himself [and them] in harm's way and he had to be restrained.

Have you or I tried to domesticate Jesus Christ, to reduce him to a non-threatening Jesus-meek-and-mild? If so, we are closer to the family of Nazareth standing just outside his circle, ready to run for cover, than to the new family seated around him, really listening to him and therefore vulnerable.

The second way is to misconstrue all the evidence of Jesus' mission on earth and to claim that he must be in league with the devil, 'He has an unclean spirit'.

If you do this publicly, as did these religious leaders, then you have deliberately put God's plan for the salvation of others at risk, and it is this which is unforgivable. This is real blasphemy.

We might pause for a moment, implore the grace of God, determine to really hear the Gospels, discern the will of God for our lives, and so come back within the ultimate family allegiance of those who dare to call God 'our Father'.

Prayer for the Plenary Council

Blessed are you, God of all creation. You have given us life and light and all the wonders of the world. You have sent your Son Jesus to be our Saviour and your Holy Spirit to be our guide. As we prepare for the plenary council, we ask you to come into our hearts with your Son and Holy Spirit. Come to us and make your home in us. We pray for our local community, for the people of our diocese and for the Church throughout Australia. May your wisdom show us the way, for your word is a lamp for our feet and a light for our path. Come and fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the fire of your love, that we may live by your gospel and share your good news with all we meet. Holy Mary, Mother of our Saviour, pray for us. St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.
