Because of her, we can!

Women form the backbone of communities across Australia. Mothers, sisters, aunts, grandmothers and daughters have been and continue to be the thread that holds our families together. They have fought for justice, reconciliation and social change.

It is time for us to celebrate and embrace the role that women play in our Ministries, our Church and our families. This Sunday we highlight the women in our Church and community – particularly those women at the forefront of community driven organizations designed to meet the spiritual and physical needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholics. Our Mother Mary is another strong inspirational woman in our lives, teaching us to open our hearts to God.

(The National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council, 2018)

The National Redress Scheme

The Federal Government's redress scheme commences July 1 2018. The Catholic Diocese of Ballarat, through the Australian Catholic Bishop's Conference, has committed to participate in the scheme as another avenue of support for people who have experienced institutional child sexual abuse. People wishing to find out more and/or pursue support under the redress scheme can visit the Australian Government's Department of Social Services website www.dss.gov.au/redress or call the National Redress Information Line on 1800 146 713. I would like to confirm that any payments by our Diocese under the redress scheme will be paid from Diocesan resources, and not from the resources of parishes. Parish funds and assets belong to the local parish communities. They are a valuable resource for local communities and assist in fulfilling the mission of the Church at a local level. Andrew Jirik, Diocesan Business Manager.

Gospel Reflection

In the gospel, Jesus reaches deep into the world beyond life and rescues a young girl from the jaws of death. Earlier, he was jostled by the crowd and felt healing power leave him in order to restore an afflicted woman. Repeating the words of last week's gospel: Who is this man? Is this someone with whom we want to become involved? On the other hand, can we afford not to get involved with him? This is a man who can lead us to life even in the midst of death. He is someone who is interested in the well-being of everyone, even those who may not be highly valued by society – women and children, the chronically ill, those who carry the seeds of death within them.

God's graciousness toward us should prompt us to be generous toward others. What we receive as life-enhancing gifts, we must share with those in need, those to whom life has not been kind. As we have been favoured by the healing touch of God, so we must extend that same loving touch to others. The love of Christ impels us to be openhanded as we approach those in need. Following Jesus' lead, we must not only give to them, we must also allow them to take from us. At times this will require that we share material resources; at other times it might mean that our energy will be drained in our service of them. In all of this, Jesus has set the example for us to follow.
