Saint of the Week St. Cajetan Feastday: August 7 Patron of workers; gamblers; job seekers; unemployed people; Albania; Italy; Malta; Argentina; Brazil; El Salvador; Guatemala Birth: 1480 Death: 1547. In 1523, the Church was in sad shape. People could not get the spiritual nourishment they needed from the large numbers of uneducated and even immoral priests who took their money but returned nothing. When good priests and laypeople turned to the hierarchy for help, they found leaders at best apathetic and indifferent to their concerns. How should a good Catholic respond to this situation? We all know how Luther and others responded -- by splitting away from the Catholic Church when their pleas went unheard. Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year B

As we celebrate, we acknowledge the Indigenous owners of the land on which our Churches are built, the Tjapwurong people, and we respect the presence of the spirits of their ancestors among us.

First Reading Ex 16:2-4. 12-15

I will rain bread from heaven upon you.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 77:3-4. 23-25. 54. R. v.24

(R.) The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

1. The things we have heard and understood,
the things our fathers have told us,
we will tell to the next generation:
the glories of the Lord and his might. (R.)

2. He commanded the clouds above and opened the gates of heaven.
He rained down manna for their food,
and gave them bread from heaven. (R.)

3. Mere men ate the bread of angels.
He sent them abundance of food.
He brought them to his holy land,
to the mountain which his right hand had won. (R.)

Second Reading Eph 4:17, 20-24

Put on the new person that has been created in God's image.

Gospel Acclamation Mt 4:4

Alleluia, alleluia!

No one lives on bread alone,
but on every word that comes from the mouth of
God. Alleluia!

Gospel Jn 6:24-35

Whoever comes to me will never be hungry; whoever believes in me will never thirst.

PARISH PRAYER

Loving God, Good Shepherd of us all, gather us and form us into a welcoming Parish family.
Touch our hearts with your love so that we,
In turn, may reach out in love to one another, in a neighbourly community. We ask this through Jesus Christ Our Lord.
Amen.

A VOCATION VIEW

"I am the Bread of Life. He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst." "Lord, send us priests after your own heart to give us the Food of everlasting life - Your very Self in the Eucharist." Consider a call to the priesthood of Jesus Christ."

Pope Francis @Pontifex.com 2017

"Charity is the most effective form of witness, because in it people see the love of God."

Parish Centre Coffee Machine

A new Nespresso Coffee machine has been bought for Parish Centre. It has been well received by recent conferences hiring the centre. We have asked for a $1 donation per pod as the Nespresso pods are quite expensive. This has also been received well. And the quality is excellent. And profit from this little venture will go back into the Parish Centre account.

ACRATH Government Funding ends

The one-year funding grant from the Federal Government for ACRATH ran out on June 30. Sadly, this announcement from the Federal Government revealed that it would not be re-funding ACRATH this year. We need your help now, more than ever, to continue our vital work to end human trafficking and modern day slavery. While we hold hope for further funding in the future, right now we are completely reliant on your generosity to continue working to combat modern day slavery and forced marriage. To continue our programs in the coming year we need $300,000. Many of you, or your congregations, parishes or communities, already donate to ACRATH. Please, can you make a tax-deductible donation today. To make a donation contact Rosie Hoban on 0431 471046 or email rap@acrath.org.au.

The National Redress Scheme

The Federal Government's redress scheme commenced 1 July 2018. The Catholic Diocese of Ballarat, through the Australian Catholic Bishop's Conference, has committed to participate in the scheme as another avenue of support for people who have experienced institutional child sexual abuse. People wishing to find out more and/or pursue support under the redress scheme can visit the Australian Government's Department of Social Services website www.dss.gov.au/redress or call the National Redress Information Line on 1800 146 713. I would like to confirm that any payments by our Diocese under the redress scheme will be paid from Diocesan resources, and not from the resources of parishes. Parish funds and assets belong to the local parish communities. They are a valuable resource for local communities and assist in fulfilling the mission of the Church at a local level.

Andrew Jirik, Diocesan Business Manager.

Plenary Council Song

The song, Listen to the Spirit, was launched at the recent PROCLAIM Conference. The song is composed and performed by Brisbane singer/songwriter Peter Pelican. He said the song draws on many of the key themes of the Plenary Council. More information regarding this song is available from the Plenary Council website <http://plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au/song/> or can be downloaded from the diocesan website www.ballarat.catholic.org.au

Joke of the Week

A woman brought a very limp parrot into a vet hospital. As she lay her head on the table, the vet pulled out his stethoscope and listened to the bird's chest. After awhile, the vet shook his head sadly and said, "I'm sorry but Polly has passed away." The distressed owner wailed, "Are you sure? I mean you have done any testing on him or anything. He might just be in a coma or something." The vet rolled his eyes, shrugged, turned and left the room returning a few moments later with a beautiful black Labrador. As the bird's owner looked on in amazement, the dog stood on his hind legs, put his front paws on the examination table and sniffed the dead parrot from top to bottom. He then looked at the vet with sad eyes and shook his head. The vet led the dog out but returned a few moments later with a cat. The cat jumped up and also sniffed the bird. The cat sat back, shook its head, meowed and ran out of the room. The vet looked at the woman and said, "I'm sorry, but like I said, your parrot is most definitely dead." He then turned to his computer, hit a few keys and produced a bill which he handed to the woman. Still in shock, she took the bill. "$950 just to tell me my bird is dead!?" The vet shrugged. "If you'd taken my word for it, the bill would have only been $100, but the lab report and the cat scan really bumps up the cost."
