Prayer for Plenary Council

Blessed are you, God of all creation. You have given us life and light and all the wonders of the world. You have sent your Son Jesus to be our Saviour and your Holy Spirit to be our guide. As we prepare for the Plenary council, we ask you to come into our hearts with your Son and Holy Spirit. Come to us and make your home in us. We pray for our local community, for the people of our diocese and for the Church throughout Australia. May your wisdom show us the way, for your word is a lamp for our feet and a light for our path. Come and fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the fire of your love, that we may live by your gospel and share your good news with all we meet. Holy Mary, Mother of our Saviour, pray for us. St Mary MacKillop, pray for us. Amen

Joy Spreading in Ballarat - Stacey Atkins special guest! Stacey Atkins is the guest speaker at the next Joy Spreading event on Friday, Sept 14, 6.30pm - 9.00pm at Lake View Hotel, Ballarat. An opportunity for young Catholic adults (18-30yo) to share ideas and views in a friendly environment. Free event. This is a Year of Youth initiative - Open New Horizons for Spreading Joy. Literacy is Freedom The Australian Literacy and Numeracy Foundation (ALNF) is dedicated to raising language, literacy and numeracy standards in Australia and raises funds to develop, implement and sustain innovative projects for individuals, families and communities. Did you know that currently only 1 in 5 indigenous children living in very remote communities can read at the minimum standard? There are things we can do to help. For more information go to the ALNF website https://alnf.org

26th August ~ 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

Focus on the Scriptures

The decisions called for in today's readings are life decisions. The people at the time of Joshua had to decide which god they would worship. The disciples of Jesus had to decide if he was the one who would fulfill their messianic expectations. We have life decisions to make as well. How will we choose?

The choices we make determine the character of our union with God. God called us out of the slavery of sin and protected us throughout the journey of our lives. Jesus walked with us through the challenges of life and performed wonders for us. Why should we look elsewhere? Because we face new challenges. The new demands placed on us may be so great, or the commitment required of us may be so demanding that we feel that we can no longer walk with him. The church may be changing in ways we do not appreciate, or it may not be changing in the ways we believe it should, and so we may feel that we can walk with him no longer.

If we decide to commit ourselves, we will enter into a union with God that is deeper than anything we have previously known. However, this union will be based on faith. We may understand no more than we did in the past, things may be no more to our liking. But, 'to whom shall we go?' Jesus is God's holy one; he has the words of eternal life.

Responsorial Psalm: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.
Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Your words, Lord, are spirit and life: you have the words of everlasting life. Alleluia!

Recently Deceased: We commend to God: All those who have died recently

Anniversaries: We remember: John Brusaschi, David Kotek, John O'Connor, James Scanlan, Adrian Mullaly, Lena Walker

We pray: for the sick of our Parishes especially Blake Dridan (St Columba's school), for the success of the Plenary Council and for children preparing to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Eucharist.

ST COLUMBA'S PARISH NEWS

Love, pray, serve, hope & follow Jesus

Refugee and Migrant Sunday 26 August Welcoming, protecting, promoting and integrating migrants and refugees. Pope Francis echoes the words of the Gospel: "Every stranger who knocks at our door is an opportunity for an encounter with Jesus Christ, who identifies with the welcomed and rejected strangers of every age". (Matthew 25:35-43).² The Holy Father qualifies this "encounter" with four verbs and actions: "Welcoming, protecting, promoting and integrating migrants and refugees"³ and calls on all people to promote the culture of the encounter.

Welcome this weekend we welcome Fr Robert McCulloch SSC who will be celebrating both Masses at St Columba's.

Baptisms we congratulate Daisy Ellen Mason, daughter of Thomas and Molly; and Edward James Butler, son of Michael and Jane, who will be baptized on Sunday morning. We pray that they will grow in faith with the loving support of their parents, godparents and our parish community.

Ballarat Clergy Support Fund Collection for Sick and Retired Priests – 1-2 September. Creating a secure retirement future for the priests of the diocese is a duty and care in which we can all participate. Fifteen retired priests are currently supported by this Fund. The funding required for these commitments is ongoing.

Congratulations to Fr Marcello on 17th anniversary ordination on Friday 31st August. We pray that the Holy Spirit will continue to guide you.

St Columba's Arts Festival students from St Columba's school will show their talents with their visual art creations. Wednesday 29th August 5pm-7.30pm in the School. See flyer in the foyer for more information.

Catholic Earthcare Ballarat Diocese is reminding all that the Season of Creation September 1st to October 4th (Feast of St Francis of Assisi) is an annual global Christian celebration of prayer and action to protect the environment. You are invited to join with us at the ecumenical service celebrating the start of the 2018 season being held at St Mathews Anglican Church, Wendouree (Corner of Howitt and Forest Street) on Sunday 2nd September at 2pm. Light refreshments to follow.

Plenary Preparation in Ballarat Diocese Plenary Council 2020 wants to hear from people around Australia. As part of the Plenary preparation process we are asked to consider and respond to three questions. Your voice is important to shaping the future of the Church. Ballarat Diocese leaflet about this Listening and Dialogue process is available on the Plenary page of the Diocese website www.ballarat.catholic.org.au or ph. 5337 7125. A Parish group is currently being formed. Watch this space.
