

Reflection on the Gospel-24th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B (Mark 8:27-35)

-Veronica M. Lawson RSM

Today's gospel reading leads us into a section of Mark's gospel that explores challenges confronting all disciples on their journey of faith. The first challenge is to clarify the nature of our commitment as disciples of Jesus. If we fail to understand who Jesus is, then we have little chance of understanding the nature of our own call to follow him. Two questions ("Who do people say that I am?" and "Who do you say that I am?") are addressed to our forbears in faith communities of the latter part of the first century and to Christians across the millennia. We are invited to hear these questions anew. Do we simply share what "the people" say about Jesus? Are we like Peter who has the right language but only partial insight? Or do we have the wisdom to seek a deeper understanding of the identity of Jesus?

In response to Jesus' second question ("Who do you say that I am?"), Peter gets the words right: Jesus is the Messiah, the Christ, God's anointed messenger. It becomes clear, however, that Peter has a very different notion from Jesus of what it means to be the Messiah or the Christ. This is understandable since there were diverse messianic expectations within first-century Judaism. Many expected a royal militaristic figure who would drive out the Roman occupiers and restore Israel's status as an independent nation. Jesus, as God's Messiah, refuses the way of violent action. His way is to be true to his mission of bringing God's empire, even if it brings the most intense personal suffering. Peter refuses to accept a suffering Messiah. He is severely reprimanded for his refusal and instructed to get out of the way, to get back to where a disciple should be, namely behind Jesus, following him, and not in front obstructing the path to wisdom and life.

Our bitter experience of global conflicts in recent decades should make us wary of accepting militaristic messiahs. In our times, to know and follow Jesus as the Christos or Messiah is to seek and support more moderate and lasting responses to perceived injustice. It is to listen to the wisdom of those with insight and experience, to calculate with the utmost care the consequences of violent reactions to the problems in our world, in contemporary society, and in our homes. That may well involve hard work, personal misunderstanding, physical and emotional trauma or, in other words, it may mean "losing one's life" for the sake of the gospel. It certainly calls for profound trust in the saving power of God. Over the next few weeks, the Sunday gospels will call us into the ways of respect, of commitment, and of peaceful negotiation, to ever deeper insight into the ways of Jesus the Christ, the anointed agent of God's empire.

MESSAGE FROM FATHER PETER

Life here in Leuven is an amazing experience. I must say it is a shock to the system to be in the student mode again. We are having three lectures a day and usually with some debrief time as well as some touring of the university and the various faculties. The university was founded in 1425 and has had an extraordinary influence in the Catholic tradition and the world. We are steeped in history here.

The lectures have been interesting with a strong concentration on the Enhancing Catholic School Identity of course but other lectures around Catholic teaching and today a great lecture on Inter Religious Dialogue.

We visited a Catholic secondary college just out of Ghent and spent the day hearing of the education system in Flanders. It is so different from our own system. We met with the principal and staff and students and gained some very interesting insights. Last week we visited Ypres, and the First World War cemeteries. This was a very moving place and very emotional. Grave after grave, soldiers of the war "Known unto God". We left a lot of prayers there.

We start the day with morning prayer prepared by members of the group and have celebrated several Eucharists at various places. Most special was in the crypt of Fr. Damian of Moloki. We celebrated Sunday Mass at the local Cathedral, it was in Dutch and they were celebrating the "man of the year". Very interesting.

We have three assignments to complete so that takes up the evening time. Now I know what a student feels like!

Hope all is well there and many thanks and appreciation. (Peter)

INVITATION TO PARISHIONERS OF ST PETER AND PAUL'S COMMUNITY BUNINYONG - RCIA TEAM MEMBER REQUIRED

The RCIA program is an enriching process for all involved, catechumens, sponsors, catechists and team members. To ensure our parish RCIA program runs effectively we require a parishioner from the Buninyong community to join our RCIA Team. Currently two of the five catechumens participating in our parish RCIA program have a connection with the Buninyong community and it would be ideal to provide dismissals for these within their community. RCIA team members participate in planning and presentation of the program including organising and preparing catechists and coordinating dismissals from St Peter and Paul's community as well as attending monthly RCIA catechumen meetings. If you would be interested in being involved in this significant ministry please contact the Parish Office Ph: 53326611 or John Clonan Ph: 0478770598.
