Making Connections: How have you welcomed Jesus into your life so far? Try to empty yourself this week of the desire to be in control. Look for ways of being of service to others. Perhaps spend time with and learn from a child. What can we learn of faith from their example?

Did you Know?: Points of interest and Catholic lore. 'The Son of Man' is a title Jesus often uses of himself in Mark's Gospel. In sitting down to instruct the disciples about being of service to others, Jesus is reinforcing his words about being the least. At that time, a teacher had greater status than his students. The normal practice was for students to sit at the feet of the teacher, not the other way around. In the ancient world, children had no status at all but Jesus puts a child before them and embraces him in welcome. This is another gesture of reversal.

Exploring the Word: The great kingdom that the disciples want is not the kingdom of Jesus. In drawing the child to himself in embrace, Jesus is telling the disciples that they must be open, trusting and receptive, as children are.

Sharing the Tradition: Some of the greatest people of the Church are those who are remembered for their service to others. St Mary MacKillop, Catherine McAuley, Frédéric Ozanam who were responsible for beginning ministries of service which still exist today. One of the great contributions of Pope John Paul II was the deep theological grounding he gave to the principle of Solidarity: Solidarity is not a feeling of vague compassion or shallow distress at the misfortunes of so many people, both near and far. On the contrary, it is a firm and preserving determination to commit oneself to the common good; that is to say, to the good of all and of each individual, because we are all really responsible for all. (Sollicitudo Rei socialis §38). What are the most urgent issues requiring a response of solidarity in our own nation at this time?

Symbols & Images: Jesus' use of a child in this text does not mean that in embracing the gospel, we must become 'childish'. Children have complete trust in their parents and we should try to develop complete trust in our heavenly Father. A child is a symbol of letting go of our desire to be in control of life. A child is a further symbol of one who is 'the least'. In welcoming and embracing those who are 'least' we welcome Christ and the one who sent him. This epitomises the discipleship of service.

Daily Prayer: O God, whose hand shelters the just and righteous, and whose favour rests on the lowly, banish hypocrisy from our hearts and purify us of all selfish ambition. Let your word sown among us bring forth a harvest of peace.

Marriage Tip: If one of you is sad, sick, or depressed, how can you tell? What do you usually do to comfort each other? Does talking about it help? Or would you rather have time alone? What does your spouse want you to do? Ask.

Vocational View: When Jesus says, "If you wish to rank first, you must be last one of all and the servant of all," many people could immediately turn and walk away. Are you willing to serve as Jesus did?

Season of Creation

God, our Creator, as we look into the skies we celebrate the wonders of the world that surrounds us. Help us to see your presence in the evening sky, your spirit in the wind, your mercy in the falling rain. Teach us to hear the good news from the sky celebrating the glory of God in Earth. Rejoice with us as we behold the dawn revealing the mysteries of the skies above and Earth below. In the name of Christ who unites heaven and Earth. Amen.

Christianity has died many times and risen again; for it had a God who knew the way out of the grave.

But I have God for my help. The Lord upholds my life. I will sacrifice to you with willing heart and praise your name for it is good. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

24 September—Our Lady of Mercy Day
Mary is the one who has the deepest knowledge of the mystery of God's mercy. She knows its price; she knows how great it is. In this sense, we call her the Mother of Mercy: Our Lady of Mercy, or Mother of Divine Mercy...Pope John Paul II

As many people around the world celebrate this special day, we extend blessings and prayers to the Sisters of Mercy.

"It is true that the primacy belongs to our relationship with God, but we cannot forget that the ultimate criterion on which our lives will be judged is what we have done for others."

10 year old Jack Berne, grade 4 student at St John the Baptist Freshwater, Sydney, instigated a 'Fiver for a Farmer' suffering from drought through 'Drought Angels' and 'Rural Aid'. He has raised $1 million since August 13th. From the Parish we can pass on donations placed on the Collection Plate in an envelope marked "Fiver for a Farmer".

Love of our neighbour is included in the love of God - St Thomas Aquinas

We Belong to the Lord
"We belong to Christ and Christ belongs to God."
All research into parish renewal highlights three key components:

- Good Community
- Good Teaching and Preaching
- Good Music.

In other words, renewal is about love, truth and beauty. Parishes have been in existence since the 4th Century. They have given voice to the "we" of faith.

We strongly desire to be loved and to love and our desires are realised in our communities.

So, what can we do to renew our parishes in this time of crisis?

We cannot be passive.

Amen.

Social Justice Sunday will be celebrated on 30th September the Australian Bishops' 2018-2019 Social Justice Statement is entitled A Place to Call Home: Making a home for everyone in our land.

The Bishops consider the extent of our housing crisis and Australia's falling rates of home ownership. They focus especially on those in our society who are most vulnerable to housing insecurity and homelessness. The latest Census figures show that more than 116,000 Australians are homeless—something unacceptable for a rich and well-resourced nation like ours. We are reminded that safe and secure housing is a human right, asserted both by the Church's social teaching and international rights organisations.
