BALLARAT NEWS

Prayer for Plenary Council

*Blessed are you,
God of all creation.
You have given us life and light
and all the wonders of the world.
You have sent your Son Jesus
to be our Saviour
and your Holy Spirit
to be our guide.
As we prepare for the Plenary council,
we ask you to come into our hearts
with your Son and Holy Spirit.
Come to us and
make your home in us.
We pray for our local community,
for the people of our diocese
and for the Church throughout Australia.*

*May your wisdom show us the way,
for your word is a lamp for our feet
and a light for our path.*

*Come and fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the fire of your love, that we may live by your gospel
and share your good news
with all we meet.*

*Holy Mary, Mother of our Saviour,
pray for us. St Mary MacKillop, pray for us. Amen*

23rd September ~ 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

Focus on the Scriptures
More focussed on personal recognition and status, the "twelve" engage in a childish argument about who is the greatest among them. They are inside "the house" in Capernaum, the home of Jesus. They are understandably silent when Jesus questions them about the discussion they had "on the way". They have much to learn and he needs their attention if they are to understand who he is and what it means to be his disciple. They need to learn that being first has nothing to do with seeking the limelight, with hierarchy or status, with power or adulation. It has everything to do with engaging in ministry without distinction or discrimination, with being "servant of all". Like us, they may also have much to learn from "the way" itself, the path they tread through the land.

An engaging scene follows this discussion. They are "inside the house", an open house where all are welcome. Jesus places a child in their midst. The child is unnamed. We might give this child a name so that she or he is a real person for us. Jesus seemingly gathers the twelve in a circle around him. Taking the child in his arms, he tries to show them that gospel leadership resides, not in privilege, but in the welcome offered to those whose voices are rarely heard and whose needs are frequently ignored.

Jesus, the suffering Messiah, actually identifies with a defenceless child, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me". His identification with the defenceless is as intimate as his identification with God, "the one who sent me". As a church, we might well hear today's gospel story as a call to respond with compassion and justice to those who have suffered the indignity and injustice of abuse in their childhood. We might hear it as an invitation to listen to the cry of our sisters and brothers who continue to seek the dignity and justice that belong to all of God's people. We might learn from the five high profile

Australians, the "filthy rich and homeless", who lived for a time with the nation's most vulnerable and called us all to commit to ways of being that might enable all to live in dignity and hope. (Abridged)

Australian Catholic Social Justice Statement 2018-2019: "A Place to Call Home" We will celebrate Social Justice Sunday on September 30th. This year, the Australian Bishops' Social Justice Statement is entitled: A Place to Call Home: Making a home for everyone in our land. This is a response to the growing problem of homelessness in Australia. For further details, a copy of the statement and relevant resources, visit the Australian Catholic Social Justice website www.socialjustice.catholic.org.au/publications/social-justice-statements#SJS2018 or call (02) 8306 3499. There are a few copies of this statement available in the foyer.

Fr Frank's farewell thank you to parishioners and friends who made the generous donations towards Fr Frank's gift—an orthopaedic chair. Truly appreciated. Thank you also to those members of the OLHC community who provided wonderful hospitality and an abundance of food to mark this event. This was a fitting tribute to Fr Frank who has made a significant contribution to the community in Wendouree West. Those members of our community who spoke paid fitting tribute to the work of Fr Frank over the past fourteen years in establishing and leading the Exodus Community.

Ticket Sales for Rotary Car Raffle proceeds to support OLHC church development. Books of tickets are available from Pauline Newman in the Church foyer.
