Have your say – respond online

The Listening and Dialogue Encounter can happen in many ways. You can get a few of your friends and family together at a time and place that suits you. You can join one of the above gatherings that the parish and diocese are hosting. Invite your friends and family to have a conversation about the future of the Catholic Church in Australia. Ask everyone – “What do you think God is asking of us at this time?” And have them send in their responses online. Go to plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au

To promote our own prayerful thinking about our responses in the Cathedral Parish to the question – what is the Holy Spirit asking of the Church in Australia? We invite the many and varied voices of Cathedral parishioners to be heard within our Parish. You are invited to offer your 200 words to the Parish Office.

Our response this week comes from Barbara Noack

What is the Holy Spirit asking of the Church in Australia?

I believe the Holy Spirit is asking

For the Church to turn back to God. and to love Him

For the Church to obey the command of Christ to love one another and to obey the Laws of God, For the Church to preach the Gospel

For the Church to serve the poor, For the Church to pray for peace in this world.

Gospel Reflection - Sr Veronica Lawson rsm

Human limitation is just as much a reality now as it was in the ancient world. We strive for the ideal but fall far short of it in so many ways. When this happens in marriage, the consequences can be more far-reaching than in other aspects of our lives. The parties involved become the “little ones” whose lives are shattered and disoriented. The embrace of the community is needed in a particular way for everyone affected by divorce, especially the children. When parents part company, the best interests and needs of the children are sometimes forgotten. Too often, those who have experienced the trauma of divorce feel alienated from the worshipping community, and this at a time when they need the courage to face a different future from the one they had envisaged. The story about marital commitment leads immediately into a story about Jesus taking the children in his arms and blessing them, despite the disciples’ attempts to send them away. Children are important persons who are never to be excluded from the inner circles of love and compassion. We might hear today’s gospel as a call to be inclusive in all our relationships and to remember the children no matter what happens.
