Possessions!

The lie about all our stuff is this: we possess it. In fact, our possessions own us more powerfully than we can ever hope to claim them. Make a mental list of what you think you've got: home, car, furniture, bank accounts, electronic gadgets, education, title, position, relationships, and responsibilities. Whatever we have, it also has us. And what it costs us to maintain all our stuff goes much deeper than our wallets. It takes time and life and effort and will to keep all the stuff of our lives in place.

Even the poorest person on the planet possesses something; the goal isn't to renounce all resources because we can't. We'd still be in possession of our lives. The spiritual goal is to surrender what we possess, so that it can make us less free. If we surrender our resources to God's purposes, then no one can take anything from us. We become liberated when our worldly wealth is at the disposal of God's will. Those who walk off with heavy hearts are dragging their possessions with them. No chance at all if you think you can pull it off by yourself. Every chance in the world if you let God do it.

Which of your possessions is the most burdensome for you?
