PRAYER REQUESTS

We must stop hating says the Pope

To insult or hate someone, or to have contempt, is a way of "killing the dignity of a person," the Pope said.

One may think: "I'm fine because I do not do anything wrong," but he or she is deceiving themselves, he continued. "A mineral or a plant, or the sampietrini stones in the piazza, have this kind of existence, a person – a man or a woman – no." "More is required of a man or woman," he stated. "Human life needs love." Francis referenced the Gospel of Matthew, when Jesus is teaching his disciples on the mountain, and says: "You have heard that it was said to your ancestors, 'You shall not kill; and whoever kills will be liable to judgment.' But I say to you, whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment."

In this passage, the Pope explained, Jesus reveals to his followers that "before God's court, even anger against a brother is a form of murder."

Jesus also says that, by the same logic, insult and contempt are sins too, he added, pointing out how often people are accustomed to insulting others, even commenting sometimes that so-and-so "is dead to me."

To do so is like killing them in your heart, the Pope said: "Pope Francis advised Catholics, before the start of Mass, to strive to be reconciled with anyone they have a problem with and to fight against the temptation to be indifferent toward their fellow human beings.

Healing a Nation Through Education

The theme for World Mission Month 2018 is "Healing a Nation through Education"

In 2018 the Catholic Mission Church Appeal highlights the importance of Catholic Mission in Myanmar to improve the education for children, specifically through teacher training and implementation of alternative, child centred education around the country.

Ballarat Diocesan Catholic Education is involved in supporting the teachers in Myanmar in partnership with Catholic Mission and Myanmar Catholic Church Pope Francis' message for World Mission Day 2018

"Never think that you have nothing to offer, or that nobody needs you. Many people need you. Think about it! Think in your heart: many people need me"
