COMMUNION TO LYNDOK: 28 October: Louise & Michael Taggart

 Making Connections: Perform an act of service each day this week. Pray the prayer of St Ignatius Loyola: Lord Jesus teach me to be generous, to serve you as you deserve to be served, to give without counting the cost, to fight without heeding the wounds, to work without seeking rest, to spend my life without expecting any other return than the knowledge that I do your will.

Did You Know? Points of Interest and Catholic lore: Acts 12:2 reports the martyrdom of James. He was killed, probably by decapitation, by Herod Agrippa, grandson of Herod the Great, during a persecution of the early Church.

Exploring the Word: Christianity is not a state where power and authority is lorded over others. Instead it is a call to service and humility and may come at great cost. It is often in servicing others that we learn something about ourselves or experience a renewed sense of purpose. Have you experienced this?

Sharing the Tradition: Today's second reading reflects on the priesthood of Christ but Christians understand that: Christ...has made of the Church 'a kingdom, priests for his God and Father'. The whole community of believers is, as such, priestly. The faithful exercise their baptismal priesthood through their participation, each according to his own vocation, in Christ's mission as priest, prophet and king (CCC§1546). Today is Mission Sunday. You could explore the vocation of missionaries and the role of all the faithful in 'mission'.

Symbols & Images: The 'cup' and the 'baptism' to which Jesus refers are his suffering and death on the cross. These images evoke for us the sacraments of Baptism and Eucharist by which the death and resurrection of Jesus are kept at the heart of our faith and our worship. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.

Living the Word: Pray for the ordained clergy. Pray for vocations to the ordained clergy. Pray for each other that you will be able to partake of the priesthood of Christ conferred on your baptism.

Daily Prayer: Maker and author of life, in Jesus we have found the path to wisdom. Let us, therefore, be bold to approach you, not seeking privilege but asking mercy. Let us live among one another, not seeking to be served but to serve.

Marriage Tip: Hold hands. It may sound corny but try holding hands when discussing something sensitive. It physically reminds you that you may disagree about something, but that you're still connected and committed to each other.

Vocational View: Life's rewards are tied up in the spirit of service. Just as the Son of Man came to give His life, so too are we then called through our profession of faith to serve others. Lord, we pray, 'let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in You, to do your will.'

Pope's Prayer Intentions for October

The Mission of Religious

That consecrated religious men and women may bestir themselves, and be present among the poor, the marginalized, and those who have no voice.

"Go in peace glorifying the Lord by your life."

A Bird, A Bee, and a Tree

A bird, a bee, and a tree.
Differences so vast and great.
But not so great as God and me.

A bee on a flower does feed.
A hummingbird does also a flower need.
On soil the tree does feed.
And what of me?

I send out my tendrils of faith.

To sink into the God of grace.
I draw out the food of Love
To nourish my life from above,
I reach out my arms of hope.
To strengthen me in life to cope.
(Sister Michael Marie Rottinghaus, OSB)

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

LORD, LET YOUR MERCY BE ON US, AS WE PLACE OUR TRUST IN YOU

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. R.

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. R.

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia! Praise the word of Truth and Life.

You are light, Lord, for our darkness, break upon our waiting spirits.

Mystery Of Faith
 Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

"To live and to give Jesus Master, the Way, the Truth and the Life to the world."
 Fr. James Alberione

Today I am pleased to introduce the 2018 Catholic Mission Church Appeal, with its theme inspired by Isaiah 52:7, 'How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news...'. This verse captures the work of the Church in Myanmar to bring peace and good news to communities across the country, mainly through the power of education.

'The top priority for the Church is education, and I am happy that the education system is changing. Without education, there is no future for the country. I am very grateful for the support of Catholic Mission. Please continue to support us, especially in the provision of education, so that we can stand on our own feet as a nation.' - Cardinal Charles Maung Bo S.D.B.—Myanmar's first Cardinal.

As an organisation dedicated to supporting local Churches to continue the mission of Jesus in their communities, we are pleased that Pope Francis has acknowledged the contribution of Catholic Mission and its international counterparts towards healing Myanmar through our various programs there.

At the height of his historic visit to Myanmar, Pope Francis acknowledged the support of Pontifical Mission Societies (as Catholic Mission is known internationally) during his homily at a public mass in Yangon during his Apostolic visit to Myanmar.

'Through the daily ministrations of its bishops, priests, religious and catechists, and particularly through the praiseworthy work of Catholic Karuna Myanmar and the generous assistance provided by the Pontifical Mission Societies, the Church in this country is helping great numbers of men, women and children, regardless of religion or ethnic background.'

Through the building of schools and training of dedicated teachers, we are seeing across Myanmar, especially in remote parts, the beauty of messengers bringing peace and good news. I invite you to help healing a nation by enabling the Church in Myanmar to provide, as part of its works of mission, high quality education for children across the country. Father Brian Lucas, National Director.

Reach out. Give life.

In Hakha, a remote town in the mountainous north of Myanmar, St John's School is educating local children with child-centred methodology. Three of the teachers at St John's have been trained through the Pyinya Sanyae Institute of Education (PSIE) in Yangon, and have been posted to this school to help local children learn in a modern way that maximises their potential. Your support through Catholic Mission can enable PSIE to continue training teachers and help improve education across the country. You can also help St John's School add grades to ensure continuity of education, and become economically sustainable. Freecall: 1800 257 296 or catholicmission.org.au/Myanmar
