BALLARAT NEWS

Prayer for Plenary Council

*Blessed are you,
God of all creation.
You have given us life and light and all the wonders of the world.*

You have sent your Son Jesus to be our Saviour and your Holy Spirit to be our guide.

*As we prepare for the Plenary council,
we ask you to come into our hearts with your Son and Holy Spirit.*

Come to us and make your home in us.

*We pray for our local community,
for the people of our Diocese and for the Church throughout Australia.*

*May your wisdom show us
the way, for your word is a lamp for our feet
and a light for our path.*

Come and fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the fire of your love, that

We may live by your Gospel and share your good news with all we meet.

Holy Mary, Mother of our Saviour, pray for us. St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.

28th October ~ 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time (B)

Focus on the Scriptures

Throughout this liturgical year we have examined several aspects of our faith. We have pondered the history of our salvation, the merciful compassion of God, God's willingness to lead us out of the bondage of our addictions. We have meditated often and long on the person of Jesus, on his life and death, on the meaning of his sacrifice, on his resurrection, on his influence in our lives today. We have considered our own ongoing transformation as disciples of Jesus, baptised into his death and resurrection, commissioned to bring the news of his love to all those with whom we come into contact. We have reflected on all of these wonderful deeds of God, and now we must ask the question: What difference has it made?

Have we merely acquired some information about the biblical readings, about our religious ancestors, about the ministry of Jesus and the life of the early church? Or have our eyes really been opened; have we been enabled to leave behind whatever prevents us from living the Christian life fully, to abandon our exiles or the trappings of our former lives? Have we accepted more genuinely the Christian responsibilities that are ours as baptised followers of Christ, in our own personal lives, in our families, in our relationships with others, at the workplace? To what degree have we been transformed into Christ? How open have we become to the action of the Spirit in our lives? Have we been made a new creation? And do we recognise Christ in our midst?

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death, and brought us life through his gospel. Alleluia!

ST COLUMBA'S PARISH NEWS

Love, pray, serve, hope & follow Jesus

Family Groups Congratulations on 30 years of involvement in St Columba's Parish. We invite you to join in the celebration by staying for a cuppa and cake after each Mass this weekend.

Plenary Council St Columba's There are opportunities for you to join a small group during the upcoming weeks. Details of the venues, dates and times are on the notice board. Add your name to a group and join the discussion. Have your say!

The St Vincent de Paul team is aware that many past parishioners of St Columba's may not be able to attend Mass (due to age or infirmity). Recognising how important they have been to our parish community, we are keen to visit them – but we might not know where they are now residing. If you know of any such person who would appreciate a visit from the familiar face of a fellow parishioner, we would love to hear of it. Please let a member of the Vinnies team know after Mass, or email: Kathy Walters: rkahjnd@hotmail.com or Anthea Hinchey: hinca@clonard.catholic.edu.au

Spring clean thank you to all the wonderful people who turned up last Saturday morning for the spring clean of the church. The church looked and smelled wonderful after all your efforts!

Remembrance service A time for families to remember loved ones who have died during the past year. Wednesday 14th November at 7pm in the Church. It will be a time to offer hope and consolation to those of us left behind. This will be followed by a light supper. All welcome.

November Masses During November the Church traditionally remembers all those who have died. Rather than adding your loved ones to the notice sheet this month, we invite you to write them in the memorial book (if you have done it in previous years you do not need to include them again)

November 2nd Mass for All Souls Day will be held at Our Lady Help of Christians Parish at 10am

Mission Sunday Apologies for not putting out the envelopes last weekend for your donation to this special cause. Envelopes are available in the Church now.

Christmas lunch Friday 30th November 12 noon Midlands Golf Club Fairways Room $28 pp 2 course Christmas themed meal. Bookings or inquiries to Judith 5331 1012 or add your name to the sheet in either one of the foyers (RSVP before 14 November) This is open to parishioners from OLHC and St Columba's and friends.

The Ballarat Young Vinnies will be hosting a bush dance on Saturday the 10th of November at 7.30pm at the St Patrick's Cathedral Hall. Admission at the door - $15 per adult, $25 per family. Please bring small change for the raffle and activities. Light refreshments and supper to be provided. All welcome!

Plenary Council 2020. "This week I attended a Plenary group meeting and it was a privilege to listen to the stories of other members of our parish. I was inspired by their dreams and hopes for our church of the future. Everyone's ideas and comments were recorded and will be submitted to the website so they will be heard by the Council." Val Bourke
As the Archbishop Timothy Costello says "... it is so important that everyone, without exception, has the chance, and takes the opportunity to speak from the heart about what he or she believes God is asking of us ... we need to hear from you for we are sure that God speaks to us all, and the Church needs to listen to everyone". WHO WILL SPEAK IF YOU DON'T?
