Making Connections: Today's feast brings the Church year to a close. What have been the important moments for you in your personal life and on your journey? Who have been the important people for you this year? Have you noticed change and movement forward? This week, bear witness in your home or workplace to the truth that you are discovering.

Did You Know? Points of Interest and Catholic lore: Pontius Pilate was the prefect or governor of the Roman province of Judea. He held this office from 26 to 36 AD. He had a reputation for being insensitive to Jewish religious practices and was all too ready to use brutal force to repress any dissent against Roman rule. He was ultimately removed from office and sent back to Rome after a brutal attack on a gathered crowd in Samaria. Pilate's normal place of residence was in the coastal city of Caesarea. He was in Jerusalem at this time because the Passover was one of the 'pilgrimage festivals' of Judaism when many people travelled to the city to celebrate the feast at the Temple. The population of Jerusalem swelled greatly and this was a time when the Romans feared an outbreak of rebellion. Because of this, the Roman legions travelled to Jerusalem to reinforce the troop numbers stationed in the city. The crime for which Jesus is tried and killed is that of sedition—any claim that he was the 'King of the Jews' was a direct threat to the emperor. Only the Roman governor could pass judgement in such a case. Crucifixion was a Roman punishment not a Jewish one.

Exploring the Word: What are some of the conflicts between the values of the kingdom of Jesus and the values of the society we live in?

Symbols & Images: The absolute composure and assurance of Jesus in this text is contrasted with the defensiveness of Pilate who is locked into an earthly and political understanding of kingdom. For Jesus, real power lies in the redemptive love of the Father and his own redemptive self-giving.

Sharing the Tradition: The Feast of Christ the King is a relatively new one in the Church calendar. It was established in 1925 by Pope Pius XI after the world had experienced the horrors of World War I and been shocked at the brutality and destruction of that conflict between so-called civilised and Christian nations. The role of the Church in social and cultural life was diminishing and there was greater separation of Church and State. This feast sought to confront growing secularism head on. Since Vatican II, the Church has seen itself in a new dialogue with the world and this feast now more strongly reflects upon the nature of Christ's kingship.

Daily Prayer: Lord God almighty, you have anointed Jesus as the Christ not to rule a kingdom won by violence but to bear witness to the truth, not to reign in arrogance but to serve in humility and love, not to mirror this world's powers but to inherit a dominion that will not pass away. Freed from our sins by the blood of this faithful witness, shape our service of others after the pattern of Christ's self-sacrificing love.

Marriage Tip: "Fidelity to promises is truly a masterpiece of humanity!" – Pope Francis. Pray today for the grace to be faithful to all your promises, especially those made to your spouse and children.

Vocational View: Christ is King ... the faithful Witness. He loved us ... and made us a line of priests, prophets and kings to serve His Father. Who are we to be called forth as the priests of tomorrow - prayerful men - leaders, ready to preach the Word of God.

"Go in peace glorifying the Lord by your life."

White is the colour of rejoicing

November is the month of remembrance of the dead, of our dead. We remember those who have served the parish so well and who have gone recently to God: our parish priests, our long-serving parishioners.

We remember those who lived long lives and those who lived all-too-briefly.

This Month's prayer focus

For all who have lavished us with love and gone before us, that they may rejoice forever in God's

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

THE LORD IS KING; HE IS ROBED IN MAJESTY.

The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed; the Lord has robed himself with might, he has girded himself in power. R.

The world you made firm, not to be moved; your throne has stood firm from of old. From all eternity, O Lord, you are. R.

Truly your decrees are to be trusted. Holiness is fitting to your house, O Lord, until the end of time. R.

A Child's Gratitude

Dear God,
thank you for letting us live in your wonderful world!

Thank you for kookaburra and kangaroo, koala, emu, parrot, possum, pelican, brolga, and willy wagtail.

Thank you for our pets: dogs which run to meet us, the purring of cats, the singing of canaries, and the chatter of budgies.

Thank you, God, for playmates and schoolmates, penfriends and church friends, for the kindness of grandparents, and the care of mother and father.

Thank you, God, for all good and beautiful things—and most of all for Jesus who brings us your great love for us.

On the last day of the Church year Thank You for all that you contribute to the vitality of our Parish Family.

"God loves cheerful Givers".

Throughout this liturgical year we have examined several aspects of our faith. We have pondered the history of our salvation, the merciful compassion of God, God's willingness to lead us out of the bondage of our addictions.

We have meditated often and long on the person of Jesus, on his life and death, on the meaning of his sacrifice, on his resurrection, on his influence in our lives today. We have considered our own ongoing transformation as disciples of Jesus, baptised into his death and resurrection, commissioned to bring the news of his love to all those whom we come into contact. We have reflected on all of these wonderful deeds of God, and now we must ask the question: What difference has it made? Have we merely acquired the biblical readings, about our religious ancestors, about the ministry of Jesus and the life of the early church? Have our eyes really been opened; have we been enabled to leave behind whatever prevents us from living the Christian life fully, to abandon our exiles or the trappings of our former lives? Have we accepted more genuinely the Christian responsibilities that are ours as baptised?

25 November—UN Day of Elimination of Violence Against Women

Violence against women and girls is one of the most widespread, persistent and devastating human rights violations in our world today. Gender inequality persists worldwide. Achieving gender equality and the empowerment of women and girls will require more vigorous efforts, including legal frameworks, to counter deeply rooted gender-based discrimination that often results from patriarchal attitudes.
