BALLARAT NEWS

Prayer for Plenary Council

Blessed are you,
God of all creation.
You have given us life and light
and all the wonders of the world.
You have sent your Son Jesus
to be our Saviour
and your Holy Spirit
to be our guide.
As we prepare for the Plenary council,
we ask you to come into our hearts
with your Son and Holy Spirit.
Come to us and
make your home in us.

We pray for our local community,
for the people of our diocese
and for the Church throughout Australia.

May your wisdom show us the way,
for your word is a lamp for our feet
and a light for our path.

Come and fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the fire of your love, that we may live by your gospel
and share your good news
with all we meet.

Holy Mary, Mother of our Saviour,
pray for us. St Mary MacKillop,
pray for us. Amen

National Prayer of Sorrow and Promise

16 December, 5pm
Mercy Place Chapel,
Ballarat East

The Catholic Religious of Australia encourage the people of the Diocese to join them in prayer for those who have been abused, their families, and communities. All welcome.

9th December ~ 2nd Sunday of Advent (C)

Focus on the Scriptures

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist encourages his followers to be patient, as the wait for salvation will soon be over. The Israelites longed to see the day when the Messiah would come. Each generation hoped and prayed that they would be the one to witness the appearance of God's anointed. The Jewish people still hope and pray for this event in every generation.

But Jesus did not come as many expected. Some thought he would arrive in a dramatic event and the end of the world would occur. Others expected a regal entrance or a political overthrow of the Romans. Luke's Gospel repeatedly points out that the very people who longed for the day to see the Messiah missed out because they were looking for the wrong signs.

John the Baptist is the first to see Jesus for who he really is for the world. He recognises that Jesus' sacrificial love can fill our valleys, lay mountains low, make crooked paths straight and rough ways smooth.

Advent is not a season where we have to pretend that we do not know Jesus is coming and then put on mock surprise at Christmas. Advent is the season which celebrates a 'patient yes'. Every year all of us in the Church stand in a queue and remind ourselves of how blessed we are to have seen our salvation in Jesus. We remember the faith of those who longed to see what we see and to know what we know. And we cultivate our patience for life's valleys, mountains and crooked paths where sometimes we can feel Jesus' absence more than his presence, where only when we look back we can see he was with us all the way.

So, as we all wait together in line this Advent let's say yes to all that salvation holds for us: yes to God's personal love; yes to Jesus' kingdom of justice and peace; yes to every opportunity to serve the Gospel and yes to knowing that our God is a companion to us at every step of our journey, even in the most unexpected ways.

Scottish poet John Bell expresses it this way:

*Light looked down and saw the darkness.
"I will go there", said light.
Peace looked down and saw war.
"I will go there", said peace.
Love looked down and saw hatred.
"I will go there", said love.
So he,
the Lord of Light,
the Prince of Peace,
the King of Love,
came down and crept in beside us.'*

We pray: for the sick of our Parishes, especially Saskiah Gallagher, Blake Dridan, for the success of the Plenary Council and for those on the RCIA journey for 2018/2019.

ST COLUMBA'S PARISH NEWS

Love, pray, serve, hope & follow Jesus

Giving Tree Please take a green angel card from the tree and purchase a gift suitable for the age and gender of the person. Then wrap gift, tape the card you took onto the gift and return it to under the tree (up to or prior to the weekend of 14/15 December). There will also be a box for you to donate food or toiletry items (also something special for single mum's would be appreciated) for those in need. Thank you.

RCIA on Sunday morning our three candidates (previously Baptized) will take their first public step in their journey towards full reception into the Church. The Rite of Acceptance (Rite of Welcoming) including the signing of senses will take place on Sunday morning during the 10am Mass. The Church will officially welcome the candidates as disciples, members (albeit not yet full members) of the household of faith. This rite is the "first consecration by the Church" for those seeking Christian initiation. They will literally be marked with the cross of Christ as God's own. We will also present them with their first Catholic Bible. Please keep Debra, Michelle and Charissa in your prayers.

Baptism we congratulate Izaak James Cannane, son of Emma and Joshua and Billy Maurice Martin, son of Kerry and Kate, who will be baptized this weekend. We pray that they will grow in faith with the love and support of their parents, godparents and our parish community.

Advent Anointing Mass will be held on Wednesday 12th December at 11am. This will be followed by a light luncheon. If you require transport please contact Judith in the Office.

Advent Reconciliation will be on Thursday 13th December at 7pm in the Church. All welcome

Rosters the next round of rosters have been sent out and are now available on line and a few printed copies are in the foyer. These start in January. 2019 Flower roster also now available.

Communion to the Sick Would those who take Communion to the sick and housebound please contact the Parish Office asap 5331 1012 or ballaratnorth@ballarat.catholic.org.au with the name/s of those to whom you take Communion? This is to update our list and ensure we have enough hampers for pickup. Thank you

East Timor Knitting Program Please look in the Foyer at the articles for Silent Auction. Write an amount you would pay for an article and if you are the highest amount over the next few weeks you can purchase it. Most beautiful knitting in continually coming in for the babies and parents of East Timor. Words of thanks and appreciation have come from the Sisters and the families. In the foyer please note The Certificate of Appreciation that we have received on your account.

St Vincent de Paul Mass St Columba's SVdP will be celebrating its annual Mass this Monday night at 7pm. We would love to have you join us in this celebration which will be followed by a light supper. All welcome.
