Making Connections: Try to imagine the anxiety and fear that Mary and Joseph would have felt at being unable to find their son for three whole days! Reflect on your own experience of family life. Can you discern ways in which you came to experience God's love in your family? In what ways is the love of God for all his children reflected in the love shared by family members?

Did You Know? Points of Interest and Catholic lore: The Passover was one of the three Jewish feasts that should be celebrated in Jerusalem at the temple if at all possible. It was common that many people from a town, or an extended family, would travel together to Jerusalem for Passover, mostly for reasons of safety on the road. Mary and Joseph were devout and pious Jews who observed all the rituals and customs of Judaism. Jesus lost in the temple is the only scene focusing on the boyhood of Jesus in any of the gospels. Luke includes it to highlight one of his central motifs: Jesus' later journey to Jerusalem to the cross—the new Passover.

Sharing the Tradition: Jesus was born into a human family, all the members of which are models of steadfast and committed service to God. We are not only members of our human family but also members of God's family, and this brings responsibilities with it.

Symbols and Images: Despite the worry that he caused them in this episode, Jesus returns to Galilee to live in obedience to Mary and Joseph, just as he was obedient to his heavenly Father. This episode shows that even at an early age, Jesus is focused on the will of the one who sent him and his search to know God completely.

Daily Prayer: O God, Creator all-powerful, in your wisdom and love, your Son, begotten before the dawn of time, became in time a member of our human family. Give to parents the wisdom and wonder to see the mystery of your will unfold in the lives of their children. To daughters and sons give, with the increase of years, an equal measure of growth in your grace. Together may we treasure in our hearts the love you have lavished upon us in letting us be called your children.

Marriage Tip: Don't take down those decorations yet! The Christmas season has only just begun. So

1 January—World Day of Peace

The theme of the 52nd World Day of Peace, which is observed on 1 January, and the Pope's message for the occasion is Good Politics at the Service of Peace. This was announced by the Holy See Press Office and emphasised the responsibility of each one in politics. Political responsibility belongs to every citizen and, in particular, to those who have received the mandate to protect and govern.

keep playing Christmas music and rejoicing with your family at our Savior's birth.

Vocational View: Unless your family loves you, nothing else makes sense. In your family your vocation can grow in wisdom, age and grace.

"Go in peace glorifying the Lord by your life."

HOPE PEACE JOY LOVE

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

How happy they who dwell in your house, O Lord.

How lovely is your dwelling place, Lord God of hosts. My soul is longing and yearning, is yearning for the courts of the Lord. My heart and my soul ring out their joy to God, the living God. R.

They are happy, who dwell in your house, forever singing your praise. They are happy, whose strength is in you; they walk with ever growing strength. R.

O Lord, God of hosts, hear my prayer, give ear, O God of Jacob. Turn your eyes, O God, our shield, look on the face of your anointed. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia.

The Word of God became flesh and came to dwell among us. All accepting him will become children of God.

Mystery Of Faith

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Feast of the Holy Family

"See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are."
(1 JOHN 3:1)

During this season of giving, let us remember the most important gift we have received—being children of God. As God's children, it's important that we express our love for others as well. Frequently tell your spouse, children and other family members and friends that you love them.

A Prayer for the New Year

Lord, You make all things new
You bring hope alive in our hearts
And cause our spirits to be born again.

Thank you for this new year
For all the potential it holds.
Come and kindle in us
A mighty flame
So that in our time, many will see the wonders of God
And live forever to praise Your glorious name.

Amen

Christmas Plenary Prayer

Lord, in this holy season of prayer and song and celebration
Open our eyes to the songs of the angels as they tell of Good News
Give us joyful hearts as we sing and pray and celebrate
Awaken our hearts anew to your presence
Encourage us in our efforts to speak boldly and with prayerful discernment
Lead us in our work toward the Plenary Council 2020
That we may continue to proclaim 'Joy to the world, the Lord is here!'
Amen.
