Words of thanks

Thank you to all who have contributed to the celebration of Christmas in the Cathedral Parish. Many parishioners have offered their service – thank you to the members of the St Vincent de Paul Society for their Advent preparation from the generous contributions made by parishioners to the Jesse Tree, enabling hampers to be distributed prior to Christmas. In preparation for Christmas as we prepared to end the year, we celebrated many liturgies in the Cathedral for the Catholic Secondary Colleges and our own three Parish Primary Schools. Thank you to those who offered hospitality for the Advent Anointing Mass. Thank you to the Cathedral Liturgy Preparation team for the Advent and Christmas liturgies and to those who prepared the Cathedral for the Christmas Masses. Thank you also to the members of Regina Caeli who prepared the Carols in the Cathedral and to those who enabled us to celebrate the service of Carols and Readings. Thank you to all who ministered at our Christmas Masses. We were delighted that so many were able to join us for morning tea on the Friday prior to Christmas. Frs Anthony, Sajan and Justin are also very grateful to so many parishioners for their cards, vouchers, gifts, Christmas greetings, Christmas Offerings and the many expressions of support. These are greatly appreciated.

Judith Sully joins National Evangelisation Team (NET)

Judith Sully from our Parish writes: "I would like to say a sincere thank you to the parish for their generous contribution towards my NET sponsorship. NET Ministries Australia is an organisation committed to providing peer-to-peer ministry to high school and university students. I am so excited to become a part of this program and help spread the message of God's love to the young people of Australia. I have seen what a powerful difference NET has made in the lives of some of my closest friends, and I am so appreciative for this opportunity, and my sponsors who made this incredible adventure possible. Thank you so much."

2020 Plenary Council, Share the Story, Shape the Future

This week's response comes from Kathleen Whelan who writes: I feel the Holy Spirit is saying there is a great need to care for and help those who are suffering in silence in our church family. I would like to see a Healing Ministry team formed in every Catholic church. The group could consist of – Priest for Healing Sacraments (which we already have); Doctors who minister with the Word of God; Carers who journey alongside in friendship. The aim being to do good for those who are desolate, lonely, oppressed and sick. Looking out for our brothers and sisters. To encourage our community to join their faith with action by journeying together. This will bring 'life' to our Australian Catholic Church by mercifully walking alongside others without judgement. Asking them what 'they need'.

Reflection on the Gospel – Veronica Lawson rsm

Today's celebration of the baptism of Jesus marks the end of the Christmas Season and the beginning of Ordinary Time. The liturgy of the Christmas season invited us to reflect on and to experience the various comings of Christ in our world. It invited us to open ourselves to the action of God's grace at work in our encounters with the living Christ. The readings from Luke's gospel led us from the story of the birth of Jesus to the story of his personal decision at age twelve to remain in God's house, the Jerusalem Temple, listening to the teachers of the Law and astonishing them with his answers to their questions. Now, as an adult and along with "all the people", Jesus receives John's water baptism. The crowds are wondering if John the Baptist is the Christ/Messiah, God's anointed one. John points the people away from himself and towards Jesus who "will baptise ...with the Holy Spirit and fire". Did Jesus also engage in a ministry of baptising the people "for the forgiveness of sins" or is John's reference to Jesus' activity of baptising with the Holy Spirit and fire a metaphor for the distinctive features of his future gospel ministry? It could well be both. As already noted in the reflection for the third Sunday of Advent, the three instruments of God's saving and purifying action for the Essene community at Qumran were fire, water and "a holy Spirit". In Luke's second volume, the Acts of the Apostles, the presence of the Holy Spirit is marked by tongues of fire. Fire is a powerful symbol that functions as a threat on the one hand and as a source of energy and light on the other. The gospel reading tells us that Jesus is God's Chosen One, the Beloved, on whom God's Spirit rests. In light of the first reading from Isaiah 42, the voice of God in the baptism scene commissions Jesus to bring forth justice, sensitively and without fanfare; to be a light to the peoples; to open the eyes of the blind and to set the captives free. Those baptised into Christ through the ages are baptised "with the Holy Spirit and fire" and are called to the same mission as Jesus and the same sensitive approach to that mission. The fire in our hearts sometimes flickers in the face of life's challenges. We are sometimes guilty of crushing "the bruised reed" or extinguishing the flickering flame of hope. As we move into Ordinary Time with its often extraordinary demands, we might think about stirring the embers and fanning the flame of God's love so that justice might prevail in our world and for our planet-justice without violence, if not without pain.
