REDEMPTORIST PRIEST APPOINTMENT: Following Fr Tuyen's popular sojourn with us in 2015, five more newly-ordained Redemptorist priests will be serving in our diocese from early February till the end of the year; prior to their first Redemptorist appointments in 2020. In addition to those who will be based at the Cathedral, Ararat, Hamilton and Redan-Sebastopol parishes, we look forward to welcoming Fr Mark Chia who comes from Singapore and whom we pray by the grace of the Holy Spirit will live up to his name and make his own mark among us throughout this year.

NEW CHURCH AND HALL KEYS: During the night of Tues/Wed 15/16 January, a person or persons unknown entered the porch and laundry at the back of the Parish Office and helped themselves to various keys located there, including those to St Augustine's Church and St Augustine's Hall. This week all locks on and within these buildings have been changed. This is a good opportunity to update our security arrangements and implement a Parish Keys register. Could everyone with keys to St Augustine's Church, Hall and Parish Office please return these to Jill or Fr John. New keys will be issued on the basis of people and groups needing these and details noted on our Keys register of date and to whom issued and date returned.

NADIA'S FUNERAL THANK YOU: Nadia Zinko's family sincerely thank Chris, Rita, our choir and all who prayed with them for their beloved mother, grand and great grandmother and our dear parishioner of the past 26 years at her Funeral Mass last Tuesday.
