BALLARAT NEWS

Prayer for Plenary Council

*Blessed are you,
God of all creation.
You have given us life and light
and all the wonders of the world.
You have sent your Son Jesus
to be our Saviour
and your Holy Spirit
to be our guide.
As we prepare for the Plenary council,
we ask you to come into
our hearts
with your Son and Holy Spirit.
Come to us and
make your home in us.
We pray for our local community,
for the people of our diocese
and for the Church throughout Australia.
May your wisdom show us the way,
for your word is a lamp for our feet
and a light for our path.
Come and fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the fire of your love, that we may live by your gospel
and share your good news
with all we meet.
Holy Mary, Mother of our Saviour,
pray for us.
St Mary MacKillop,
pray for us.
Amen*

Readings for next weekend:

Is 6: 1-8

Ps 136: 1-5, 7-8 R: v1

1 Cor 15: 1-11

Lk 5: 1-11

This week's gospel reading continues the story of Jesus in the synagogue at Nazareth. At first he is universally accepted: the people of Nazareth marvel at the gracious words he utters. They identify him as Joseph's son. By the end of the story, however, these same people actually try to kill him. So, what happens in between to cause such a dramatic change of heart? These are religious people, not an unruly street mob. They are friends of the family. They are familiar with their sacred texts and traditions and presumably want to understand them more fully. In fact, they are like many of us who take time out on a weekly basis to come together for worship and prayer.

The people of Nazareth seem to be carrying a sense of exclusive entitlement to God's favour, as well as some deeply entrenched prejudices against the neighbouring Syrians and Phoenicians. Their history is largely one of conflict with neighbours, of struggle for survival, and some are unwilling to relinquish their unhealed local and ethnic grievances. This story is about power and control. When Jesus suggests that God's prophetic and healing power is accessible to and may even be more readily received among foreigners than within Israel, the anger of those who consider themselves "the chosen" knows no bounds: it spills over into violence. They have little patience with the implicit criticism of their attitudes to outsiders and the challenge of his prophetic words.

One of the problems with the narrative is that Jesus seems to be deliberately provoking a negative reaction. There are other problems as well: there is no cliff in Nazareth from which the enraged crowd could cast him to his death, and it is highly unlikely that people of this tiny town of two to four hundred Galilean Jews would resort to murdering one of their own for what they see as a verbal assault. So what is going on? It would seem that the gospel writer is putting elements of later stories about the violent treatment of Jesus and his followers into this episode in order to foreshadow what is to come.

The story thus becomes a microcosm of the gospel as a whole.

When the message is comforting, the messenger is well received. When it is less palatable, the messenger is in danger of being attacked or manipulated, more often than not at the hands of people who are basically good people like us. Unchecked assumptions, deep-seated biases, and uncontrolled emotions will function to bring the anointed prophet of the God of Israel to a violent death. This story invites us to check our assumptions and our biases lest we turn to physical, verbal, or emotional violence in the face of a prophetic challenge.

Stewardship Reflections "Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous." (1 Corinthians 13:4)

Do you get jealous? Do you focus more on the things that other people have than on the gifts that God has given to you? Are you pompous? Do you acquire more possessions to impress others? At times we are all guilty of these things. Pray for more humility. Pray to become less "self-centered" and become more "God-centered".

Parish Stewardship Renewal, February - March 2019 The Ballarat North and Wendouree Parishes, together with the other 4 parishes of Ballarat are working together for a Parish Stewardship Renewal. Frank Schobben from the Development Office will facilitate this renewal with the assistance of our own Stewardship Renewal Team of Jim Kierce, David Fara, Kierce O'Loughlin, Lisha Hewitt, Peter Eddy, Bruce Chapman, Anthea Hinchey, Trish Simmons (Ballarat North) and Mike Beaumont, Adrienne Cove, Pauline and Tony Newman (Wendouree).

This is a great opportunity to make your contribution to the discussion. Please mark this date in your calendar. The Diocesan Social Justice Commission was re-established by the then-Bishop Peter Connors after a gap of some years. Since then, it has continued to operate with the active participation of Bishop Paul Bird. Over the years, the Commission has conducted conferences dealing with such matters as the role of families, refugees and asylum seekers and domestic violence. It has organised ecumenical welcomes to social justice statements by the Australian Catholic Bishops and has corresponded with politicians. It is a sponsor of the Palm Sunday March in Melbourne in support of refugees and asylum seekers. It has set up a social justice noticeboard which is linked to the Diocesan website. Members of the Commission are: Bishop Bird, Anthea Hinchey (Chair), Tony Fitzgerald (Centacare), Sue Searls (Catholic Missions and Caritas), Jo Rix (Catholic Earthcare), Mary Rita Thomas (Saint Vincent de Paul Society), Rachel Smith (Executive Member), Stacey Atkins (Catholic Education Office), Fiona Tonkin (Minutes), Jim Ryan and Noel Gregory (Parishioners). The Committee would like to make contact with parish and other local groups interested in social justice issues for a number of reasons. First, to inform them of its activities. Secondly, to give publicity to their activities. Thirdly, to seek opportunities for co-operation and mutual support. (The Commissions has held joint meetings with parish groups in Ararat and Colac). The Commission would be grateful if you could give us contact information about any such groups with an interest in social justice. Noel Gregory, 5334 5544 pyramidhill@hotmail.com
