Presbytery Sale

Saturday 9th Feb the presbytery was sold at auction for $790,000 which was in excess of market appraisals. Many are saddened and disappointed at the need for the sale but accept the reason and business case. The funds from the sale will be retained by the parish with the Catholic Development Fund. By diocesan policy the monies are only to be used for capital purposes, and will assist in funding some much needed works. The purchasers of the presbytery are an established local family from Gordon and parishioners of St Patrick's.
