HUMOUR:

A clergyman walking down a country lane and sees a young boy struggling to load hay back onto a cart after it had fallen off. "You look hot, my son," said the cleric. "Why don't you rest a moment, and I'll give you a hand." "No thanks," said the young boy. "My father wouldn't like it." "Don't be silly," the minister said. "Everyone is entitled to a break. Come and have a drink of water." Again the young boy protested that his father would be upset. Losing his patience, the clergyman said, "Your father must be a real slave driver. Tell me where I can find him and I'll give him a piece of my mind!" "Well," replied the boy, "he's under the load of hay."

A priest was performing last rites on a dying man. "Renounce the devil!" he said. "Let him know how little you think of him!" The dying man said nothing. The priest repeated his order, but still the man said nothing. "Why do you refuse to renounce the devil?" the priest asked. The man responded, "Until I know where I'm going, I don't think I should aggravate anybody."

TOWNSVILLE FLOODS CAUSE 'MORE THAN DEVASTATION'

Townsville Bishop Tim Harris said he is troubled by the crushing debt falling on people following this month's floods in North Queensland. Source: The Catholic Leader.

An estimated 500,000 cattle perished in the floods, a direct economic loss of about $300 million.

"I was talking to one fellow who lost 400 bulls at $4000 a pop, now that's $1.6 million," Bishop Harris said.

"This is the message well and truly – it's more than devastation, in some cases people have been wiped out. 'Lost the lot' is how one person described it to me."

Bishop Harris said he had spoken to many people who not only suffered financial loss but also a great emotional toll, too.

"What's devastating, and this is graphic and gruesome, the water has been to such an extent that the cattle are drowning, or getting pneumonia, or fever, or all the above," he said. "They're caught in the bog."

Bishop Harris said some of the graziers described their livestock's hide peeling off from rot and sickness, and then "the sun burns the flesh".

He said the graziers described to him some cases where, surveying their property in a helicopter, they could only see the heads of their cattle poking out of the water "just blinking".

"In one case, the dingos have been attacking the animals when they're bogged," he said. "Now you think about that. That's why I'm being quite strong about it, because, ladies and gentlemen, this is not a walk in a park." But Bishop Harris told all those suffering from the flood to "hang in there".

"We need to, as fellow human beings, be attentive to the needs of others," he said. "That is being very Christ-like. It's up to us all to rally around these people and be the face of Christ to them, however imperfect that face might be."

Charities, including the St Vincent de Paul Society and the Brisbane archdiocese's Catholic Foundation have begun providing assistance to those affected through appeals.

NEXT WEEKENDS READINGS:

(A chance to prepare ahead for next week's Liturgy of The Word)

Sunday, 3 Mar 2019: Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading Sir 27:4-7

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

Do not praise someone before they have spoken.

In a shaken sieve the rubbish is left behind, so too the defects of a man appear in his talk. The kiln tests the work of the potter, the test of a man is in his conversation. The orchard where the tree grows is judged on the quality of its fruit, similarly a man's words betray what he feels.

Do not praise a man before he has spoken, since this is the test of men.

The Word of The Lord.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 91:2-3. 13-16. R. See v.2

(R.) Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

1. It is good to give thanks to the Lord to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night. (R.)

2. The just will flourish like the palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar. (R.)

3. Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong. (R.)

Second Reading 1 Cor 15:54-58

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Victory has been given to us through Jesus Christ.

When this perishable nature has put on imperishability, and when this mortal nature has put on immortality, then the words of scripture will come true: Death is swallowed up in victory. Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting? Now the sting of death is sin, and sin gets its power from the Law. So let us thank God for giving us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Never give in then, my dear brothers, never admit defeat; keep on working at the Lord's work always, knowing that, in the Lord, you cannot be labouring in vain. The Word of The Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Phil 2:15-16

Alleluia, alleluia!

Shine on the world like bright stars; you are offering it the word of life. Alleluia!

Gospel

Lk 6:39-45

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

A person speaks from what is in his heart.

Jesus told a parable to his disciples, 'Can one blind man guide another? Surely both will fall into a pit? The disciple is not superior to his teacher; the fully trained disciple will always be like his teacher. Why do you observe the splinter in your brother's eye and never notice the plank in your own? How can you say to your brother, "Brother, let me take out the splinter that is in your eye," when you cannot see the plank in your own? Hypocrite! Take the plank out of your own eye first, and then you will see clearly enough to take out the splinter that is in your brother's eye.

'There is no sound tree that produces rotten fruit, nor again a rotten tree that produces sound fruit. For every tree can be told by its own fruit: people do not pick figs from thorns, nor gather grapes from brambles. A good man draws what is good from the store of goodness in his heart; a bad man draws what is bad from the store of badness. For a man's words flow out of what fills his heart.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Scriptural context – Three texts; one lesson

Today's gospel is made up of three separate teachings of Jesus that have been put together by the gospel writer to convey a particular message. When taken together, the three teachings all shed light on the way believers influence one another in community. It is a call to witness to one another through actions as well as words. Before we seek to teach another we must ensure we have adequately learned the lesson ourselves. We must be self-appraising before we critique another. Finally, our actions towards one another are a reflection of our intentions; good actions come from goodness of the heart.

Living the Gospel – You hypocrite

It is often argued that it is hypocrisy to attend Mass on Sundays and be 'holy' in that circumstance but to then be less than perfect during the rest of the week. This is often rolled out as a convenient excuse for not attending Mass at all: everyone who goes to Mass is a hypocrite. Of course, attending Mass does not imply perfection. It is in fact a recognition of imperfection and the need to come together as a community and to seek God's help to have another go at trying to get it a bit more right in the coming week.
