Exploring the Word: Jesus offers himself as a model of non-judgement. This, after all, belongs only to God. The disciple must recognise their own short comings and work tirelessly to rectify these so that what issues forth from their hearts are the good fruits that only true goodness of heart can produce. Recognise and nurture the goodness inside us all.

Did You Know?: Parables are often used by Jesus as a teaching tool. They are generally brief stories with a double meaning, and we should read their metaphorical interpretation rather than their literal meaning.

Sharing the Tradition: From earliest times, the church has provided an avenue to encourage the faithful to recognise and deal with our human frailty and weakness. The sacrament of reconciliation provides an opportunity to confess our failings before God, seek his forgiveness for them and to become reconciled again in his love.

Symbols and Images: The demands of the gospel are both surprising and challenging. Here the emphasis shifts to a need to subject our own conduct to scrutiny. The true disciple is in no position to pass judgement on others but must honestly confront what lies in the depth of his or her own heart.

Daily Prayer: Into the depths of the human heart, O God, you alone can see; only in your judgement do justice and mercy meet in perfect measure. Restrain us from passing judgement on our neighbour, that we may centre our zeal instead on bearing a harvest of goodness from the abundance of our hearts.

Marriage Tip: Marriage requires each spouse to be generous and to forgive, but also to accept gifts and forgiveness from the other. Pray for these graces today.

Vocational View: Since each person speaks from his heart's abundance, let Jesus form your heart and your life. Follow Him willingly.

Reconciliation—'Love your enemies and do good to them.'

'I have never yet met an enemy whom I did not try to turn into a friend' (Nelson Mandela).

This mentality transforms our world. We choose not to participate in the demonising of others. We decide to welcome strangers as possible friends. We grow in a certain other-centredness that gives oneself to another's benefit. We possess a love of neighbour which extends beyond love of kin and love of those who love us. Our love extends to love of the poor and outcast, the disposed and forsaken.

To use the language of Greg Boyle SJ, we seek to expand the circle of compassion until such time as no one stands outside it. (The Madonna)

Order of Mass

The celebration of Mass is the action of Christ and his people, and as such is the centre of the whole Christian life. It is the high point of the action by which Christ sanctifies the world, and by which mankind, with Christ, worships the Father.

We listen to the word of God, and respond by offering ourselves with Christ to his Father. Christ gathers us into his universal sacrifice, which is completed by our sharing in holy communion. At the end of the celebration, we go into the world to be witnesses to Christ in our daily lives, and to bring him to others. By our celebration we commit ourselves to this service.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night. R.

The just will flourish like a palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar. R.

Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia! Alleluia! Praise the word of truth and life.

Those who love you seek your Truth, Lord, come and make your home within us.

Project Compassion Sunday—2-3 March

In the coming weeks, we have the privilege of walking with some of our sisters and brothers who participate in Caritas programs, and who feature in the Project Compassion stories this year. How might we learn about living hope-filled lives in solidarity with one another and for the common good of our one human family?

As the season of Lent approaches, we might consider: What could we do to commit ourselves to the flourishing of hope in our time? How can we give Lent 100%?

As we prepare for the season of Lent, may we shine on the world like bright stars, with hearts full of love and compassion for our one human family. Let our prayer, fasting and almsgiving be fruitful signs of your mercy in the world.

We are the Catholic Church in the Ballarat Diocese we gather in the name of Jesus • from the Murray to the sea in interwoven faith communities. • Spirit filled we celebrate and share our journey • reaching out to nurture all God's people. (Diocesan Vision Statement 2005)

STATEMENT FROM ARCHBISHOP MARK COLERIDGE, PRESIDENT OF THE AUSTRALIAN CATHOLIC BISHOPS CONFERENCE

The news of Cardinal George Pell's conviction on historical child sexual abuse charges has shocked many across Australia and around the world, including the Catholic Bishops of Australia. The Bishops agree that everyone should be equal under the law, and we respect the Australian legal system. The same legal system that delivered the verdict will consider the appeal that the Cardinal's legal team has lodged. Our hope, at all times, is that through this process, justice will be served. In the meantime, we pray for all those who have been abused and their loved ones, and we commit ourselves anew to doing everything possible to ensure that the Church is a safe place for all, especially the young and the vulnerable.

STATEMENT FROM Paul Bird CSsR, Bishop of Ballarat

The news of Cardinal Pell's conviction on historical child sexual abuse charges is particularly disturbing to the people of our diocese of Ballarat where George Pell grew up and where he served in his early years. I express my sympathies to all those who are distressed by this news, including those who have suffered so much because of abuse. Cardinal Pell has lodged an appeal. I do not intend to make any further comment on the case while the appeal process is ongoing. We will continue to offer help to anyone who has suffered abuse. We will also continue our commitment to keeping children safe today.
