COMMUNION TO LYNDROCH: 24 March: Jim & Elaine Hales

Making Connections: 'Listen to him.' What might Jesus be saying to you at this time? Use today's collect as your prayer this week: O God, who have commanded us to listen to your beloved Son, be pleased, we pray, to nourish us inwardly with your word, that, with spiritual sight made pure, we may rejoice to behold your glory.

Did You Know?: Moses and Elijah are two of the greatest heroes of Israel. They represent the law and the prophets—two of the most important sections of the Hebrew Bible. Like Jesus, both of them suffered rejection during their lives.

Exploring the Word: As a Christian, one cannot simply remain on the mountain in contemplation of divinity; one must also come down from the mountain and take the earthly road of living the faith to its ultimate conclusion. How important is quiet contemplation and prayer in your journey? In what ways do you balance prayer and action in living your faith?

Sharing the Tradition: 'Prayer is a vital necessity ... if we do not allow the Spirit to lead us, we fall back into the slavery of sin' (CCC§2744).

Symbols and Images: The cloud symbolises the presence of God. It reveals the divine presence but also conceals it, thus protecting the witness from the full power of God's glory. Moses encountered the same phenomenon (Exodus 24:15). Another favourite symbol for the presence of God in the Hebrew Scriptures is flame or smoke for example, in the burning bush (Exodus 3) or on Mount Sinai (Exodus 19)

Daily Prayer: Countless as the stars, O God of Abraham, are the faithful whom you have led into the land of promise. Dazzling as the snow, O God of Moses and Elijah, is your glory shining on the face of Jesus, who forever prays on our behalf, the people for whom he accomplished the exodus of the resurrection. It is good for us to be here! Let us listen to your Son, your chosen One, so that we may have a share in Christ's transfigured glory.

Pope's Prayer Intentions for March

Recognition of the Right of Christian

Communities. That Christian communities, especially those who are persecuted, feel that they are close to Christ and have their rights respected.

Marriage Tip: Love is not proud. Be the first to extend the olive branch when disagreements arise.

Vocational View: After the transfiguration, Peter, John and James wanted to stay up the mountain. But Jesus said, "Move," with the knowledge that ships are safe in harbours, but not meant to stay in harbours.

British Dominican Father Timothy Radcliffe speaks to us. The Catholic Church should not be afraid of crisis; through crisis, it will grow and spring new life, said Father Radcliffe. "If you look at human beings, we grow up through crisis," said the 73-year-old English theologian. "It is our way. And so we believe, I believe, it's the fate of the church...we do not have to be afraid of crisis." Father Radcliffe pointed toward the 'biggest crisis', the Last Supper. The apostles "had abandoned Jesus. Judas had sold him. Peter was about to betray him. There was no future. And then in that darkest moment, Jesus did this extraordinary thing. He said, 'This is my body, and I give it to you'. We should ask what new thing will come to be," Father Radcliffe said.

St Patrick's Day

The Patron Saint of Ireland, St Patrick is remembered and celebrated on 17 March each year, not only in Ireland, but around the world, as people hold parades and festivals that celebrate Irish culture. Saint Patrick is said to be from the border of Scotland and England and was kidnapped at the age of sixteen and taken to Ireland where he was forced into slavery. According to his autobiographical Confessio, during the six years he spent in imprisonment, he became very religious. After a vision led him to stow away on a boat, Patrick escaped to England and went back to his family. There he had a dream that the Irish people were calling him back to teach them about God and this inspired him to become a priest. Twelve years later, after studying abroad, he returned to Ireland as a bishop sent with the Pope's blessings. For the twenty years that followed, Saint Patrick travelled the length and breadth of Ireland baptising people and establishing monasteries, schools and churches as he went. He died on 17 March c461, leaving behind an organised Church and an island of Christians.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

The Lord is my light and my help; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; before whom shall I shrink? R.

O Lord, hear my voice when I call; have mercy and answer. Of you my heart has spoken: 'Seek his face.' R.

It is your face, O Lord, that I seek; hide not your face. Dismiss not your servant in anger; you have been my help. R.

I am sure I shall see the Lord's goodness in the land of the living. Hope in him, hold firm and take heart. Hope in the Lord. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

BISHOP PAUL BIRD CSsR - Eighth Bishop of Ballarat

Bishop Paul Bird was born in Newcastle in New South Wales on 17 July 1949, the son of the late Maurice Bird and the late Olive Bird (née Burley). He is the third of their four children being preceded by Ann and Maurice and followed by Josie.

The Bishop received his primary school education at the St Francis Xavier Parish Primary School in Carrington which was conducted by the Sisters of St Joseph and his secondary education under the care of the Marist Brothers at their High School in Hamilton until 1965. He then joined the formation program of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (the Redemptorists) and made his profession at Galong on 11 February 1968. He studied for four years at the Redemptorist seminary in Wendouree in Ballarat, completed his seminary studies at the Yarra Theological Union in Melbourne and was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop John Toohey, Bishop of Maitland, at Waratah in Newcastle on 17 May 1975.

In 1987 the Bishop was appointed superior of the Redemptorist community at Brighton in Melbourne and commenced twenty years of service as editor in the congregation's publications ministry, Majellan Publications.

He served various terms totalling fifteen years in all as a member of the Provincial Council of the Redemptorist Congregation. He represented the Australian province at the congregation's general chapter in Brazil in 1991 and, from 2008 until the announcement of his appointment as Bishop of Ballarat, he served as Provincial of the Australian Province of the congregation with overall responsibility for the communities and missions in Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Singapore and Malaysia.

Bishop Bird was appointed Eighth Bishop of Ballarat by Pope Benedict XVI on 1 August 2012 and ordained as Bishop on 16 October, 2012.

Project Compassion

Tati lives in the remote forest of West Kalimantan. She is a mother of three who was earning an income working a local rubber plantation. Since taking part in eco-tourism training with Caritas Australia and its partners, Tati can now afford to send her children to school. With new hope and commitment Tati aspires to a future free from poverty for her family
