Making Connections: Reach out to someone with an invitation, a gesture or a word of forgiveness. This line from the gospel is particularly apt during Lent, the time of repentance. Use it often this week: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. Forgive me.

Did You Know?: The son going to 'a distant country' shows that he has turned his back not only on his father but also on his faith. He has left his true heritage behind. His repentance and return becomes all the more poignant. Accepting work with pigs shows just how low the son had sunk because pigs are unclean animals to the Jews and touching them rendered the son unclean as well. By asking for his inheritance, the son was as good as saying to his father, 'I wish you were dead'. This makes the father's forgiveness all the more astounding.

Exploring the Word: The religious leaders at the time of Jesus felt that there was no place for sinners in God's kingdom. This parable shows that there is always hope and a promise of forgiveness for those who repent and turn again to God, and that God never tires of seeking the lost. The father allows his youngest son the freedom to choose his way and make his own mistakes, but he keeps the door of welcome open. Through his journey, this son comes to realise that his fulfilment lies with his father and returns.

Sharing the Tradition: The unhappiness of both the sons in this parable is ultimately traceable to their distancing themselves from their father. The church names this distancing from God as sin. 'Sin is an offence against reason, truth and right conscience; it is a failure in genuine love for God and neighbour ... It wounds the nature of man and injures human solidarity' (CCC §1849).

Symbols and Images: God's abundance is again portrayed in the image of the great feast—the kingdom of heaven is open both to the righteous and to the sinner who repents. God's boundless forgiveness and loving welcome of the penitent are at the core of this parable.

Daily Prayer: O God whose face we long to see, in Christ you come in search of us, judging not by our outward appearance but gazing into our hearts at the light you have kindled. As once you gave Samuel insight to see young David as your shepherd-king, as once you led the man born blind to look on Christ and behold the face of your Anointed, so now clear our vision and focus our sight that all of us, the elect and the baptised, may acknowledge Christ as the Light of the world.

Marriage Tip: Communication is an area where there can always be improvement. Talk with your spouse about ways you can communicate better or times when you don't feel "heard."

Vocational View: Jesus came to forgive. Since people continue to sin, we need people who will continue to forgive in Jesus' way. How about YOU?

We must dig deeply in Christ. He is like a rich mine with many pockets containing treasures: however deep we dig we will never find their end or their limit. Indeed, in every pocket new seams of fresh riches are discovered on all sides.

Reconciliation —Friday 10am; Saturday 10.20am at St Pius

"In everyone there is a zone of solitude that no human intimacy can fill: it is there that God encounters us ... Here, in the hollow of our being, we discover the Risen Christ."

- Brother Roger of Taizé

Pope Francis laments the state of many neighbourhoods, which have become places of individualism, isolation, defensiveness, and mistrust. "Jesus desires to pour out an abundance of life upon our cities," he says. Our neighbourhoods should connect residents to each other and help us support each other, especially those in need. This is the Gospel way. (The Joy of the Gospel, 75)

What can you do this week to foster more connection and community in your neighbourhood?

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad. R.

Glorify the Lord with me. Together let us praise his name. I sought the Lord and he answered me; from all my terrors he set me free. R.

Look towards him and be radiant; let your faces not be abashed. This poor man called; the Lord heard him and rescued him from all his distress. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory. No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that proceeds from the mouth of God; glory to our God.

Buy Chocolates made without Slavery this Easter
 Pope Francis said that “every person ought to have the awareness that purchasing is always a moral – and not simply an economic – act.” World Vision in its 2015 report, Chocolate’s Bitter Taste, estimates that Australians spend up to $3 billion on chocolate a year, with sales peaking at Easter. Much of the chocolate we consume in Australia is made with cocoa beans picked by enslaved children, particularly in West Africa. You can make a difference to the world and the lives of these children by buying only slavery-free chocolates. There is now a wide range of slavery-free chocolate and Easter eggs available, including a budget priced range of UTZ certified products in ALDI, Coles and a wide selection at Higgs and OXFAM shops. Chocolatier also produces Fair Trade Easter chocolate. Check the labels on the wrappers. For more information go to www.acrath.org.au/take-action/slavery-free-easter

Warrnambool Parishes, Looking Forward
 With the ageing priests in the Warrnambool District discussions have begun with neighbouring Parishes about the advantages of parishes working together. At combined meetings OLHC Parish is represented by Dion Bartlett, Kim Hilderbrandt and Fr. Lawrie. Merging together to form a new entity is a possibility. Fr. Van De Camp is retiring on May 5th; Fr. Linehan at the end of 2020.

The heart is rich when it is content, and the heart is content when its desires are focused on God.

Project Compassion

Michaela is a 21-year-old trainee at Purple House, a dialysis centre in the Central Desert for people suffering from kidney disease. With the support of Caritas partners, Michaela is helping to build a social enterprise, a connection to culture and a new outlook for the chronically ill.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2019 and help provide essential care, employment and training for First Australians.

That we might learn from our First Australian sisters and brothers the importance of family and that we preserve what is good and true. By God’s grace may we recognise that we are God’s mercy in the world today.

Plenary Council Update

The Listening and Dialogue phase is over. What happens now? With the Listening and Dialogue phase now complete, the National Centre for Pastoral Research will continue the deep listening process, conducting a qualitative and quantitative analysis of the submissions received and, using best-practice research methods, will identify key themes that have emerged. Then, in May, the Bishops Commission for the Plenary Council, the Plenary Council Executive Committee and the Facilitation Team will work together with the National Centre for Pastoral Research to finalise the National Themes for Discernment. Those themes will become the focus for the Listening and Discernment phase, which will begin from June 9, and will be the foundations for the Plenary Council agenda. More information about the Listening and Discernment phase will be available shortly. One of the key aspects of the Plenary Council 2020 is prayer. We ask you to continue to pray the Plenary Council Prayer
