Responsorial Psalm
(R.) My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

1. All who see me deride me.
They curl their lips, they toss
their heads.
'He trusted in the Lord, let him
save him;
let him release him if this is his friend.' (R.)

2. Many dogs have surrounded me,
a band of the wicked beset me.
They tear holes in my hands and
my feet.
I can count every one of my bones. (R.)

3. They divide my clothing
among them.
They cast lots for my robe.
O Lord, do not leave me alone,
my strength, make haste to help
me! (R.)

4. I will tell of your name to my brethren
and praise you where they are assembled.
'You who fear the Lord give
him praise;
all sons of Jacob, give him
glory.
Revere him, Israel's sons.' (R.)

Gospel Acclamation

Praise to you, Lord Jesus
Christ, king of endless glory!
Christ became obedient for us
even to death
dying on the cross.
Therefore God raised him on high
and gave him a name above all
other names.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus
Christ, king of endless glory!

PROJECT COMPASSION 2019 PRAYER

Creator God, You are our constant hope! In the season of Lent, you call us to prayer, fasting and love of those most marginalised. As a community of faith and courage, let our gifts to Project Compassion be symbols of hope and solidarity with our one human family. Accompany us as we journey with Jesus to bring 'good news' to all creation and ready our hearts to work for the common good of all your people. We ask this in Jesus' name AMEN

Reflection

One of the distinctive features of Luke's passion narrative is Jesus' dialogue with the 'good thief'. Unlike the disciples who jockeyed ambitiously for high places in the messianic kingdom, this criminal confesses his wrongdoing and humbly asks for no more than remembrance. His plea prompts Jesus' immediate assurance of salvation. Is it stretching imagination too far to see in him a timely figure for the church, presently 'crucified' for the play of power that allowed and covered up sexual abuse, and thus called to a new humility? The gospel assures us that the gates of paradise lie open for those who own their failures and cast themselves on the mercy of God.

A Special Collection will be taken up on Good Friday to support the Holy Land.
