

Reflection on the Gospel-Easter 3C
(John 21:1-19)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

March 25 this year saw the publication of Pope Francis' Post-Synodal Exhortation, Christus Vivit. The Pope addresses his words to "young people and to the entire people of God". Quite early in the document, there is a call for the church to be a "living church", a church that is "attentive to the legitimate claims of those women who seek greater justice and equality" (par. 42). For Johannine scholar, Elizabeth Dowling RSM, this would entail a return to the spirit of the early chapters of John's gospel.

John's final chapter marks an unfortunate shift in the portrayal of gender roles, a shift that would seem to reflect struggles in the early church to accept women in leadership roles. The focus is clearly on Peter, on his role as leader and his relationship with Jesus. In John 20, it is not at all clear that Peter has come to resurrection faith, while there is no such doubt about the faith of Mary of Magdala. It is she who receives the first resurrection appearance and she who is commissioned to proclaim the news of the resurrection to the other disciples.

In Chapter 21, Peter goes fishing and several of the other disciples join him. They catch nothing. At dawn, they see the figure of Jesus on the shore. His disciples, with the exception of the "beloved disciple", do not recognise him immediately. They follow his instructions and find themselves overwhelmed with their catch. At the invitation of Jesus, they breakfast on bread and fish. This provides the setting for the rehabilitation of Peter, already foreshadowed in his decision to clothe his naked body. In the wake of his three-fold denial, Peter makes a three-fold profession of love of Jesus. This brings with it the responsibility of tending not only his "sheep" but also his "lambs". This command has particular resonance for a church that has failed so many of its children.

While the passage is filled with symbolism, we might pause to appreciate the materiality underlying the symbols. Fishing is an important gospel metaphor for ministry. The number of fish (153) probably denotes the universality of the mission. The 30% decline in large fish species in my country provides a sober reminder that the mission must include the natural world as never before. The untorn net is a symbol of unity, like the seamless garment in the passion narrative. The verb "to draw" has several layers of meaning in this fishing context: the disciples were not able "to draw in the net....so Simon Peter went aboard and drew the net ashore". These statements evoke earlier sayings of Jesus, particularly his words on the cross, "And I if I am lifted up from the earth will draw all to myself" (12:32). The "all" allows for the whole Earth community, human and more-than-human, to be drawn to the crucified and resurrected One, despite the failures of the past.

LITURGY AT ST ALIPIUS PARISH

Time & Talents

Thank you to everyone who has completed a Parish Ministry Survey – It is pleasing to see both continuing and new participants contributing to our parish life. For people new to a ministry you will be contacted by your new ministry Team Leader over the coming weeks. During June/July there will be training made available so you can participate in your chosen ministry effectively with the aim to start putting you on the roster commencing early August.

Liturgy Committee

A Liturgy Committee is being established over the coming months where Team Leaders and some general parish members will meet regularly to plan the liturgy for our weekend Masses. A 'Steering Group' met last week to discuss ways of moving forward in the establishment of a Liturgy Committee. As the Committee is establishing we'll keep you up to date in this newsletter along with our new liturgy website at "sapliturgy.net.au".

Liturgy Roster - St Alipius Community

The Liturgy Roster commencing the weekend of May 11/12 is being organised over this coming week. Thanks to those people who have indicated their un/availability. The Parish is building the roster in a software application called "ZenShifts" and each participant will receive a reminder each time you're rostered on by sms, email or both. This system will enable the Team Leaders to manage swaps between participants from week to week and have a roster that can easily be updated and relevant, right through till the last week of the roster.

The Roster will be available for download from the sapliturgy.net.au website from next weekend and physical copies will be left in the church porch. These won't be named, so if you aren't in the position to download your roster, please take one from the church porch next weekend.

Liturgy Roster - Sts Peter & Paul Community

For the next little while, the liturgy roster will continue to be managed by Bob and Mike. More information to follow next week. Kind regards, David Santamaria (St Alipius Parish Liturgy Convener)
