Making Connections: 'You are witnesses to this.' Try to define what it is that you are called to give witness to. In what ways can you attest to the truth of that? Live joyfully this week. Try to bring joy to others. Practise continually praising God in all the small actions of your day.

Did You Know?: The Gospel of Luke opens with Zechariah praying in the temple and closes with the disciples praying in the temple. The temple plays a critical role in Luke's account of the public life of Jesus. The nine days between the ascension and Pentecost that the disciples spent in praying together gave rise to the 'novena', a devotional practice of praying in a particularly focused way for a special intention over nine consecutive days.

Exploring the Word: The reaction of the disciples to the absence of Jesus after his ascension is in stark contrast to the reaction they had to him leaving at his death. After his death on the cross, they shut themselves into the upper room in fear. Now they worship him and go joyfully rejoicing to the temple. Clearly now they have not lost the sense of his presence with them. His return to God opens the way to glory for all who believe, and this is the source of their joy. He is beyond their sight but truly with them, and he has repeated again his promise to send the help they will need to undertake their mission into the world. The Acts of the Apostles tells the story of the Gospel being taken out to all the nations, a story that continues to this day.

Sharing the Tradition: The celebration of the Ascension as a particular day developed in the vicinity of Antioch around AD 380. Chapter 1 of the Acts of the Apostles notes that Jesus appeared among his disciples for forty days after the resurrection (Acts 1:3). It then goes on to describe Jesus as being taken up into heaven (Acts 1:9). The juxtaposition of these two verses probably gave rise to this feast being celebrated forty days after Easter. Forty days after Easter falls on a Thursday, and in the past this feast was known as 'Ascension Thursday' and was a holy day of obligation. In more recent times, the celebration has been moved to the Sunday before Pentecost.

Symbols and Images: Luke's Gospel is sometimes known as 'the gospel of joy'. Joyfulness and rejoicing are constant motifs and familiar reactions to the revelation of Jesus as the Christ. The extent to which we live in union with Christ allows us to participate already in the joy of heaven that is promised to us.

Living the Word: How does our community 'continually praise God'?

Daily Prayer: God of all creation, whose mighty power raised Jesus from the dead, be present to this community of disciples whose hearts have been sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and whose bodies have been washed with the pure water of baptism.

Marriage Tip: In the midst of an argument, reach out to your spouse. Physical touch can't fix everything, but it can alleviate tension.

Vocational View: Our Spiritual Life is a Journey - following the Call of the Master to "Go and teach all people my Gospel." Say "Yes" over and over again.

5 June World Environment Day A Prayer for our Earth

All-powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures.

You embrace with your tenderness all that exists.

Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty.

Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one.

O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes.

Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction. Touch the hearts of those who look for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth.

Teach us to discover the worth of each thing, to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognise that we are profoundly united with every creature as we journey towards your infinite light.

We thank you for being with us each day.

Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Keep for Daily Prayer)

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

All peoples, clap your hands, cry to God with shouts of joy! For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear, great king over all the earth. R.

God goes up with shouts of joy; the Lord goes up with trumpet blast. Sing praise for God, sing praise, sing praise to our king, sing praise. R.

God is king of all the earth. Sing praise with all your skill. God is king over the nations; God reigns on his holy throne. R.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia. Alleluia, alleluia.

Go and teach all nations. Go, proclaim the Good News. I am with you always. Until the end of the world.

Death, O Lord, until you come again.

Confirmation—Background for Adults

The coming of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost gave the disciples the power and strength to go out and live like Jesus and tell others about Jesus: the Spirit called them into action. It is this same Spirit, whom we received at Baptism, who now calls us into action.

Ascension of the Lord

Jesus said, 'Go out to the whole world, proclaim the Good News to all creation.' (Mark 16:15)
Jesus, help us to know that you are with us always, until the end of the world.
This week, practise being 'good news' ambassadors by sharing 'good news' stories with each other.
Christ leads us to go out from ourselves more and more, to give ourselves and to serve others.

Aid to the Church in Need is organising support for the rebuilding of Churches in Sri Lanka and healing their wounds after the suicide bombs causing 250 deaths. An envelope marked 'Sri Lanka' can be placed on the collection plate.
"For what is one of the world's largest networks, the global Catholic community is closely bound by our shared faith. We stand in solidarity beside our brothers and sisters in Sri Lanka—from all backgrounds—as they come to terms with this tragedy and begin what must seem an unthinkable healing process."

Prayer for the Easter Season

Creator God, we lift our hearts to you. As the dawn breaks, may we carry the unity we share into every moment knowing that we are one with the Risen Christ.

Faithful God, we lift our eyes to you. As the sun rises, may this moment stay with us, reminding us to look for the promise in your word.

Sustaining God, we lift our prayers to you. As the dew air falls, may we breathe this morning in and know that like the earth, you sustain us, keep us and work within us always.

And so, we lift our voices to you. We celebrate Jesus' resurrection from death, his defeat of darkness and rejoice in your world, now bathed in stunning resurrection light.

May we ever live to praise you!
Amen
(Stella Maris, Manly NSW)

*Blessed are those who see God in every person and help others
to see him too.*
