Making Connections: 'If you love me you will keep my commandments.' What are the commandments that Jesus gave? How easy or difficult is it for you to keep them and live them? 'The Advocate...will teach you everything and remind you of all that I said to you.' How open are you to seeing the action of the Holy Spirit in the world around you? Recall someone you no longer see but who had a significant influence on shaping who you are;

someone whose memory is alive for you and whose influence remains strong. Does this phenomenon give insight into the experience of the disciples at Pentecost?

Did You Know?: Pentecost was originally a Jewish harvest festival, celebrated fifty days after the Passover. It was one of the great pilgrimage festivals of the Jews, and this is why so many pilgrims were present in Jerusalem on the day when the Spirit was manifested in the lives of the disciples. The Christian feast of Pentecost is fifty days after Easter and is the culmination of the Lent-Easter-Pentecost cycle. The church teaches that the Holy Spirit brings both gifts and fruits to the faithful (see Sharing the Tradition).

Exploring the Word: The Christian imperative to love as Jesus loved is again at the centre of the gospel. To love God and therefore to love the Son can be shown by keeping the commandments that Jesus gave—that is to say, by living life as a Christian should. To help in this task, Jesus promises to send the Advocate, the one who will teach and constantly remind the followers of Jesus of all that has been said to them. When 'they were filled' with the gift of the Holy Spirit, the disciples were able to overcome barriers and divisions and to 'preach about the marvels of God' to people from all parts of the world. In what ways does the Spirit continue to enable the disciples of Jesus to do just that, even in our own time?

Sharing the Tradition: Coming to faith is not so much acquiring a new set of beliefs about God as it is discovering God's existence within the realities of our daily lives. The gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit help us to be more attuned to the actions of God in our lives and in our world. At baptism, the Spirit comes upon the newly initiated Christian, and at confirmation, the Spirit of God is renewed and confirmed in the faithful. The seven gifts of the Holy Spirit are: wisdom, understanding, counsel (right judgement), fortitude (courage), knowledge, piety (reverence) and fear (awe) of the Lord (CCC§1831). The church lists twelve fruits of the Spirit: charity (love), joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control and chastity (CCC§1832). Explore these gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit. How do you see them manifested in yourself and others? In what ways do we need to cultivate these gifts and fruits? How are you called to use these gifts and fruits?

Symbols and Images: Red is the colour that is often associated with the Spirit, and red vestments are worn by the priest on Pentecost Sunday. Red symbolises the intense love or 'fire' of the Holy Spirit. Other symbols of the Spirit are tongues of flame, wind and a white dove. All have their origins in Scripture. Each of these conveys something of the mystery of the Spirit of God, which is beyond human understanding.

Living the Word: In what ways are the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit made manifest in our community and to the wider community? How can these gifts and fruits be strengthened still further?

Daily Prayer: Today, O God, you bring to fulfillment the paschal mystery of Jesus your Son. Pour forth your Holy Spirit on the church that it may be a living Pentecost throughout history and to the very ends of the earth. Gather all nations and peoples as one to believe, to hope and to love.

Marriage Tip: If your spouse does something thoughtful, reinforce your gratitude with a simple thank you or a thoughtful gesture in return.

Vocational View: Like sun through a stained glass window, the Spirit of God can shine in your life to rouse the best in another. Come, follow Him.

Bless the Lord, my soul! Lord God, how great you are. How many are your works, O Lord! The earth is full of your riches. R.

You take back your spirit, they die, returning to the dust from which they came. You send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth. R.

Confirmation, My Pentecost—Background for Adults

The Spirit makes us all members of the one Body of Christ. As the body of Christ we have the responsibility of introducing children and adults into the sacramental life of the Church. It is important to remember that the reception of Baptism, Confirmation and First Holy Communion is but the beginning of a journey of growing intimacy with Christ. This relationship continues right through life. Further education in faith at home, in the parish and at school will build on this beginning. The coming of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost gave the disciples the power and strength to go out and live like Jesus and tell others about Jesus: the Spirit called them into action. It is the same Spirit, whom we received at Baptism, who now calls us into action.
