PENTECOST SUNDAY

News from Abroad: Fr John has this week begun his study at University of Notre Dame, Tantur Ecumenical Institute, in Jerusalem. Visitors from all over the world stay at this Oasis of learning, community and hospitality.

As you can see from these photos Fr John did some sight seeing before the demands of study!

Learning to ride a camel (yes that is Fr John holding up a big rock) and in the kitchen learning how to make Jordanian cheese balls.

Vision for Ballarat Diocese: Parishioners, Groups and Committees are invited to be part of a process of consultation to find words to express a common vision for our Diocese. The consultative process has been initiated by Bishop Paul Bird and the Bishop's Advisory Council. Your response is due 15th July. Further information from Parish Office or www.ballarat.catholic.org.au

History: Mary MacKillop visited Warrnambool travelling by train on 6th June 1899, 120 years ago. Travelling with Sr Gertrude they were met by Mrs O'Brien, Irene & Mona. If anyone has more information please advise Parish Office.
