Responsorial Psalm
(R.) O Lord, our God,
how wonderful your name
in all the earth!

1. When I see the heavens, the work of your hands, the moon and the stars which you arranged, what is man that you should keep him in mind, mortal man that you care for him? (R.)

2. Yet you have made him little less than a god; with glory and honour you crowned him, gave him power over the works of your hand, put all things under his feet. (R.)

3. All of them, sheep and cattle, yes, even the savage beasts, birds of the air, and fish that make their way through the waters. (R.)

FROM FR JOHN Spiritual Renewal

PARISH LEVEL – Divine Renovation: from a maintenance to a missional parish

Some parishioners have already volunteered their interest in joining a pastoral leadership team which will discern and apply methods which can spiritually and renew the great parishes of Infant Jesus Koroit and St Patrick's Koroit. If you're eager to get involved, or even just to stay informed, let Fr John know.

DIOCESAN LEVEL – Diocesan Vision

Bishop Paul has initiated a consultation process to develop a new Diocesan Vision. A letter from the Bishop and information about the consultation process is on the notice boards near church entrances. The consultation process is open until July 15 and parish and diocesan groups and others are encouraged to participate. We'll address this in the near future.

NATIONAL LEVEL – Plenary Council

We now have six national themes for discernment which will inform the agenda of next year's Plenary Council. We'll hear a lot more about these themes in the weeks ahead. The bishops have asked every Catholic to pray and think about how God's Church in Australia can become more: • Missionary and Evangelising • Inclusive, Participatory and Synodal • Prayerful and Eucharistic • Humble, Healing and Merciful • A Joyful, Hope-Filled and Servant Community • Open to conversion, Renewal and Reform.

Parish Cards

The Parish Card Group that has been running for many years in our Parish Hall, recently announced that they are ceasing operation due to low numbers. Since 2008 this group has donated their annual takings to our school which we have used to purchase books for our library. Over the course of these years this has amounted to over $26000. We sincerely thank this group and, in particular, Mary Farley, for their generous consideration of our school.
Sue Paulka (Principal)

By Dianne Bergant

Both the first reading and the psalm response celebrate the marvels of creation and the marvelous creator who brought them into being. Proverbs states that God created all of these things through Wisdom. While later theology will identify Wisdom with both the Word of God, the second person of the Trinity, and the Holy Spirit, the reading itself does not suggest this. Paul credits God with our justification through faith. Justification or salvation is accomplished by God through our Lord Jesus Christ. The love of God is poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. Paul does not clearly state that the love of God that we receive through the Holy Spirit sanctifies us, but one could certainly understand it in this way.

John's theology resembles very closely that of Paul. In it, Jesus reveals the intimate connection between himself and the Father as well as himself and the Spirit. The Spirit continues the mission of Jesus, neither adding anything to his teaching nor omitting anything from it.

While this is a feast that glorifies the central mystery of our faith, a mystery that is based on the way the three divine persons relate to each other, the readings all address ways that God relates to us. If we concentrate, as the texts for today suggest that we do, on all of the ways that our Triune God has blessed us, we may be more inclined to cry out with the psalmist: 'O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!'
