Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Saturday 29th June and Sunday 30th June, 2019

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

You are my inheritance O Lord.

Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you.

I say to the Lord: 'You are my God.
O Lord, it is you who are my
portion and cup;
it is you yourself who are my
prize.' (R.)

I will bless the Lord who gives me
counsel,
who even at night directs my heart.

I keep the Lord ever in my sight:
since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. (R.)

And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad;
even my body shall rest in safety.
For you will not leave my soul
among the dead,
nor let your beloved know decay.
(R.)

You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence,
at your right hand happiness for ever. (R.)

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Speak, O Lord, your servant is listening;
you have the words of everlasting
life.

Alleluia!

THANKS AND CONGRATULATIONS TO JEAN FITZGIBBON

Jean has officially retired, although she has kindly agreed to work a few hours in the office each week until Fr John Fitzgerald selects her successor. Jean, both parishes owe you a huge debt of thanks for your generous service over many years, much of which was rendered in a voluntary capacity, and which God willing will continue for many years to come.

In this new beginning, may a new rhythm emerge: one that forms a pleasing balance between rest and engagement. May you enjoy good health, joy in abundance and peace in heart and mind.

UPDATE FROM BISHOP PAUL IN ROME

There is a video update from Bishop Paul on his Ad Limina visit to Rome on the diocesan website: www.ballarat.catholic.org.au.

DURING THE FLU SEASON

- Hand sanitiser is available at the church entrance.
- At the sign of peace, parishioners are asked to refrain from hand shaking, and instead express the Lord's peace with a simple bow.
- Communion under both kinds will continue, in accord with our Lord's instructions to eat his Body and drink his Blood. But drinking from the chalice is always an option — not an obligation — and those who abstain from the chalice still receive the fullness of the Lord's Body and Blood in the Sacred Host.

(NB: Church law prohibits communicants from dipping the Host in the chalice. Self-intinction risks accidental desecration, as a drop of the Precious Blood might be spilled on the floor.)

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION by Sr Diane Bergant CSA

Today we consider some of the personal difficulties we might have to face as disciples. First, there is no part-time discipleship. Our commitment must be wholehearted and complete. We must have a willing attitude that frees us interiorly from all other concerns so that we might be able to follow Christ regardless of our state in life or our occupation. This attitude of commitment comes not merely from our own generosity of heart but from our having been transformed into Christ through faith and baptism.

We may face conflicts when our various allegiances seem to clash. There are children to raise, elderly parents or infirm relatives to care for. What does discipleship require of us? We all must earn a living. Are we expected to leave our employment to follow Jesus? And if so, what then will we do? All disciples must face the interior struggle caused by the conflict of legitimate responsibilities.

The freedom of which Paul speaks comes with genuine love. If, out of love, we can negotiate successfully these conflicts caused by competing responsibilities, without compromising our total commitment to Christ, we will find a new kind freedom. This is the freedom that enables us to be faithful to both sets of responsibilities according to the proper priority. We will see that commitment to Christ is primary and the circumstances of our lives with the accompanying responsibilities set the parameters within which we live out our commitment. It is not in opposition with these responsibilities or despite them, but by means of or through them that we live out our discipleship.
