Giving Lent 100%

100% Determination: Week 3 Solomon Island

Peter is thrilled to now have clean water on tap at his boarding school. walks to unsafe water sources were tiring for Peter, who is living with a disability. With more free time and fewer illnesses caused by dirty water, Peter can fulfil his hope of focusing on his studies, providing him with a brighter future.

Project compassion material is available at the back of the church. Lives change when we all give 100%

PLENARY COUNCIL UPDATE.

The Listening and Dialogue phase is over. What happens now?
With the Listening and Dialogue phase now complete, the National Centre for Pastoral Research will continue the deep listening process, conducting a qualitative and quantitative analysis of the submissions received and, using best-practice research methods, will identify key themes that have emerged. Then, in May, the bishops Commission for the Plenary Council, the Plenary Council Executive committee and the Facilitation Team will work together with the National Centre for Pastoral Research to finalise the National Themes for Discernment. Those themes will become the focus for the Listening and Discernment phase, which will begin from June 9th and will be the foundations for the Plenary Council agenda. More information about the Listening and Discernment phase will be available 2020 is prayer. Continue to pray the Plenary Council Prayer.

A Prayer for the Plenary Council

Blessed are you, God of all creation. You have given us life and light and all the wonders of the world.
You have sent your Son Jesus to be our Saviour and your Holy Spirit to be our guide.
As we prepare for the plenary council, we ask you to come into our hearts with your Son and Holy Spirit.
Come to us and make your home in us.
We pray for our local community, for the people of our diocese and for the Church throughout Australia.
May your wisdom show us the way, for your word is a lamp for our feet and a light for our path.
Come and fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in us the fire of your love, that we may live by your gospel and share your good news with all we meet.
Holy Mary, Mother of our Saviour, pray for us.
St Mary MacKillop, pray for us.
