Making Connections

- What has the Father promised to you?
- How do you feel since you 'were clothed with power from on high' at the Easter ceremonies?
- 'You are witnesses to this.'

Try to define what it is that you are called to give witness to. In what ways can you attest to the truth of that?

- This gospel tells the story of the closing of one era and the opening up of another.

What experiences have you had of the closing off of one chapter of your life and the opening of another?

Share your stories.

- Live joyfully this week.
Try to bring joy to others.
Practise continually praising God in all the small actions of your day.

- Today's entrance antiphon is suitable as a prayer for this week:

*You kingdoms of the earth, sing to God;
praise the Lord who ascends to the highest heavens;
his majesty and might are in the skies, alleluia.*

Symbols And Images

Luke's Gospel is sometimes known as 'the gospel of joy'. Joyfulness and rejoicing are constant motifs and familiar reactions to the revelation of Jesus as the Christ. The extent to which we live in union with Christ allows us to participate already in the joy of heaven that is promised to us.
