Plenary Council – National Theme for Discernment #1

How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is Missionary and Evangelising? This National Theme for Discernment is inspired by the voices of the People of God who shared a passion for participating in the missionary nature of the Church and desire stronger support, involvement and formation among all the baptised who make up the Church. Find out more at <http://www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au>

MAKING CONNECTIONS

- You too have resolutely set out on a journey. How are you feeling about where this road is leading you?
- What difficulties have you experienced on the road to Christ?
- What have you had to leave behind?
- Reflect on times when you have had to make difficult decisions and choices—perhaps to turn your back on something you value in order to pursue an even greater goal. How did you feel? What motivated your actions? Share your reflections.
- 'Your duty is to spread the news of the kingdom of God.' Reflect on the ways available for you to spread the news of the kingdom of God. Make an extra effort to do just that this week.
- Use this adaptation of this week's collect as your prayer: O God, you chose us to be children of light. Grant that we may not be wrapped in the error of darkness but always stand in the light of truth.

SYMBOLS AND IMAGES

At the heart of this text is what it means to be a disciple. The imagery of the road, and of Jesus and his disciples having nowhere to lay their heads, reminds us that discipleship sometimes means undergoing discomfort and keeping oneself firmly focused on the real prize in life: the kingdom of God and eternal life with him.
