Saturday 6th July and Sunday 7th July 2019

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Cry out with joy to God all the earth,
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.
Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds! (R.)

'Before you all the earth shall bow;
shall sing to you, sing to your name!'

Come and see the works of God, tremendous his deeds among
men. (R.)

He turned the sea into dry land,
they passed through the river
dry-shod.

Let our joy then be in him;
he rules forever by his might. (R.)

Come and hear, all who fear God.
I will tell what he did for my soul:
Blessed be God who did not reject
my prayer
nor withhold his love from me.
(R.)

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

DURING THE FLU SEASON

- Hand sanitiser is available at the church entrance.
- At the sign of peace, please refrain from hand shaking, and instead express the Lord's peace with a simple bow.
- Communion under both kinds will continue, in accord with our Lord's instructions to eat his Body and drink his Blood. But drinking from the chalice is always an option – not an obligation – and those who abstain from the chalice still receive the fullness of the Lord's Body and Blood in the Sacred Host.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

from In Conversation with God

by Fr Francis Fernandez

The Gospel of today's Mass tells how Our Lord sent the disciples out to announce the coming of the Kingdom of God. Wherever they went they carried with them the peace of Christ. Before sending them out, Our Lord himself had charged them: "Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' And if a son of peace is there, your peace shall rest upon him ..." The Church will repeat this message until the end of the world.

Nevertheless, after so many years, we can still see that the world is not at peace; it desires peace and clamours for it, but it does not find it. There are few ages when the word 'peace' has been pronounced so often, and there are perhaps few ages when peace has been further away from the world. In many countries the general situation has little to do with peace. Race struggles. Class struggles. The struggle between ideologies and political parties. Terrorism. Guerrilla warfare. Kidnap and assassination attempts. Riots. Disputes. Violence. Hatred which brings resentment, accusations and recriminations. "Peace, peace, they say, when there is no peace." (Jer 6:14) There is no peace in society, or in the family or within souls. Why is there so much tension and so much violence? Why are our souls beset by so much anxiety and so much sadness, if what everyone wants is peace?

Perhaps the world is looking for peace where peace cannot be found; perhaps we are confusing peace with "the quiet life." Quite possibly we think peace depends on external circumstances that have nothing to do with human nature. Peace comes from God and it is a gift of God that passes all understanding. It is granted only to people of good will – to those who strive with the whole of their strength to live lives in accordance with God's Will.

Peace, and the joy that comes with it, cannot be given by the world. Men and women are forever 'making peace' and forever getting entangled in wars. This is because they have forgotten the advice to struggle inside themselves and to go to God for help. He will then conquer, and we will obtain peace for ourselves and for our homes, for society, and for the world.

If we do things in this way, you and I will have joy, because it is the possession of those who conquer. And with the grace of God – who never loses battles – we will be able to count ourselves conquerors, as long as we are humble.

– St Josemaría Escrivá, The Forge, 102.

Then we will be the bearers of true peace, and we will carry it wherever we go as an invaluable treasure. We will take it to our families, to our place of work, to our friends, to the whole world.
