Reflection on the Gospel-21st Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C (Luke 13:22-30)

-Veronica Lawson RSM

Some people seem to have an ingrained sense of entitlement. They put themselves first without regard for the sensitivities or rights of others. Whether their behaviour derives from childhood experiences of overindulgence or from some other source, it can be quite divisive and even destructive of family or workplace or community. Those who put themselves first will often find themselves last in that they are tolerated at best rather than welcomed into most circles.

As Jesus moves from town to town on his way to Jerusalem, “someone” puts a question to him. The question is about salvation: “Are only the few saved?” Jesus treats this as a rhetorical question that presupposes an affirmative answer. His answer could be interpreted as affirmative, even if it is a far cry from the expected response. The questioner rightly assumes that God is the one who saves. Jesus responds with a reminder that God’s saving action cannot be taken for granted. One must “strive to enter the narrow door”. Hard work is involved in ensuring that God’s saving power is there for God’s world.

While the question comes from one person, Jesus’ response is “to them”. The insistence of people in the crowd that they have eaten with him may suggest they are among those who have been following him from Galilee. They may even be those who objected to Jesus’ table companions, the tax-collectors and sinners (Luke 7:34). The text makes it clear that they have heard his teaching: “You taught in our streets”.

Jesus’ reply indicates that the tables have turned. It would come as no surprise to a Jewish audience to hear Jesus stating that the kin-dom belongs to Israel’s ancestors and to all the prophets. Jesus’ assertion that it also belongs to those who come from far and wide, “from east and west and north and south”, might be less than palatable to those who see themselves as “first” in the schema of salvation.

Those who share in the banquet in God’s kin-dom, the “saved”, have prevailed in the struggle to enter through the “narrow door”. Entry is by no means restricted to Israel’s forebears. It belongs to all who hear the word of God and put it into practice. The inclusion or “salvation” of outsiders will cause grief among “evil-doers”. These flawed individuals include those who have eaten with Jesus and who have heard his teaching without effect and who, consequently, have failed to commit themselves to the struggle to establish God’s reign of justice and peace and reconciliation. There is no privileged access to salvation on the basis of birth or race or any other contingency. While the “door” to salvation may be “narrow”, the Lukan Jesus has already declared that it is open to all who hear the word of God, to those who “hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patient endurance” (8:15).

Eucharist—Belonging & Gathering

As Jesus left this earth to go to heaven, he said to his disciples:

I will be with you always. Matthew 28:20

When the Christian Community comes together, it is Jesus who gathers us.

When Jesus gathers us together in Church, everyone is welcome, everyone belongs!

That is why we say hello to people and smile at them;
That is why we turn to others and offer them a sign of peace.

When we greet other people, we are greeting CHRIST who gathers us, we are greeting CHRIST present with us.

I think it is truly the most wonderful experience we can have: To belong to a people walking, journeying through history together with our Lord, who walks among us! We are not alone; we do not walk alone. We are part of the one flock of Christ that walks together’.

Pope Francis

Gospel Connections

You'll Get What You Need

Jesus says God doesn't always answer our prayers by giving us what we want. First, Jesus compares God to a person who gives his friend what he needs. Then he says God will answer our prayers by giving us the Holy Spirit.

What do you expect from prayer? Most of us pray for things we want, but God often gives us something we need—the courage and commitment to do God's will in tough times. You might want a good test result, but what you need are better study habits. So the answer to your prayer might be a teacher challenging you to work harder. You might pray for God to spare a loved one from an illness. God might answer by strengthening you with the Spirit so you can comfort your sick loved one. You might want a better life for the poor. And God might answer your prayer by calling your attention to an opportunity to serve those on the margins in your community.

Sure, our prayers might work miracles for others. But more often our prayers work miracles in us.

Marriage Tip: In the midst of arguments, fight against the problem and not against your spouse. Remember that you and your spouse are on the same team.

Families, Schools of Human Development
That families, through their life of prayer and love, become ever more clearly "schools of true human development".

'Go and do likewise'

In today's gospel reading God's call to care for the needy is presented in a striking way. By telling a story about a Samaritan who did the compassionate thing when experts in the law didn't, Jesus made it clear that it doesn't take years of study to know how to love God and love our neighbour. It just takes courage and humility to respond generously to the person before us. Jesus tells us 'Go and do likewise.' It's that simple. It's that clear. So let's go and do likewise. Listen to that inner urge to reach out and help when we know we could offer assistance. Jesus, teach me to love my neighbour as you love me—immediately, generously and extravagantly. Send me out as an ambassador of your mercy.

"To be Christian means to live with faith, hope and love—to have faith and hope in God's love for us in Jesus, and live that love out in the world. This is an important message at a time of difficulty for the Church in Australia."
- Dr Hodge (ACU)
